Shield for the Young (SCP-993 Reckoning)

From clowns' grim jest to minds defiled
Christ's shield protects the tender child
'Twixt layers young hearts trade hope undone
Yet Christ's bright shield has darkness won

Your truth unveils the serpent's guise
Your spirit guards where evil lies
With young souls freed, we break its wicked art
In Jesus' name, You save the heart

Screens alight, SCP-993's lore
Twisted tales young minds abhor
It clouds Earth's trust, trades peace decay
Yet Christ's pure shield lights holy way

Your word destroys the broadcast spell
Your spirit lifts where shadows dwell
With truth restored, we end its cruel deceit
In Jesus' name, Your light we meet

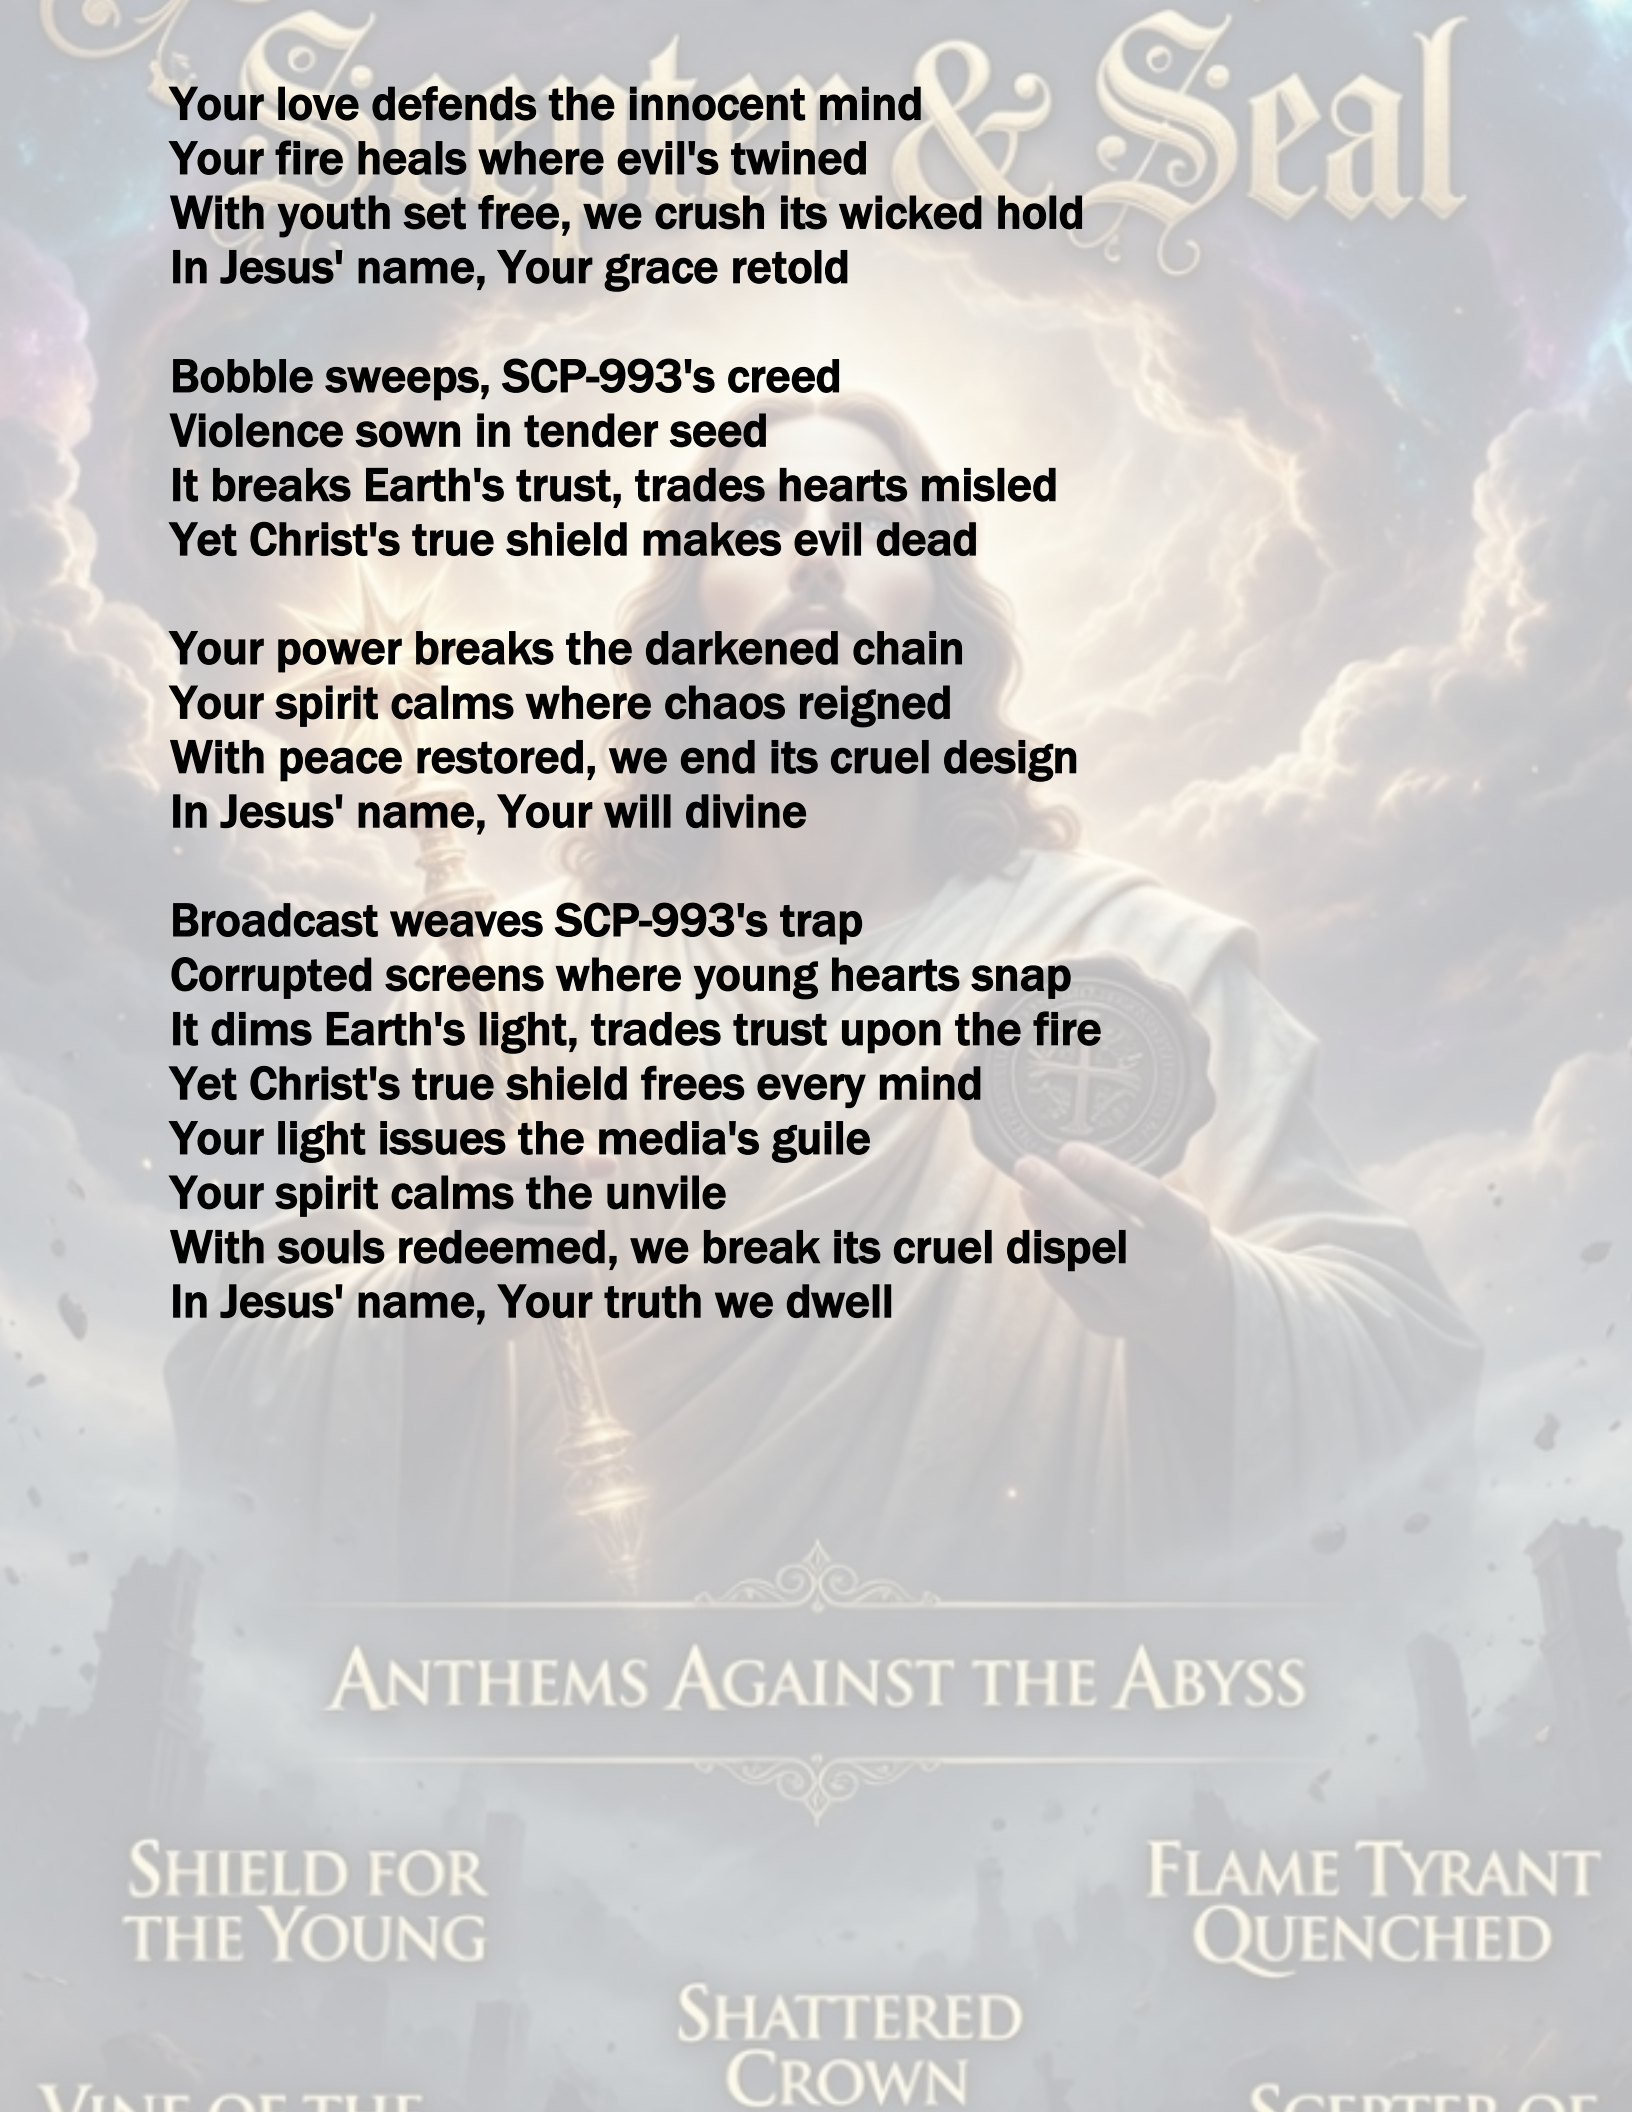

SCP-993, illur skrauti
Terla grin barn, til glötunar
Þú ert blind, miskunnarlaus
Kristur varðljós, frelsarann

The background features a faint, ethereal image of Jesus Christ. He is depicted from the chest up, wearing a white robe with a sash. In his right hand, he holds a sword with a glowing hilt, and in his left hand, he holds a circular seal or medallion. The background is a soft, golden-yellow glow with wispy clouds and a subtle pattern of small, dark, star-like specks.

Your love defends the innocent mind
Your fire heals where evil's twined
With youth set free, we crush its wicked hold
In Jesus' name, Your grace retold

Bobble sweeps, SCP-993's creed
Violence sown in tender seed
It breaks Earth's trust, trades hearts misled
Yet Christ's true shield makes evil dead

Your power breaks the darkened chain
Your spirit calms where chaos reigned
With peace restored, we end its cruel design
In Jesus' name, Your will divine

Broadcast weaves SCP-993's trap
Corrupted screens where young hearts snap
It dims Earth's light, trades trust upon the fire
Yet Christ's true shield frees every mind
Your light issues the media's guile
Your spirit calms the unville
With souls redeemed, we break its cruel dispel
In Jesus' name, Your truth we dwell

Vine of the Green Sovereign (SCP-4519 Bound)

In Congo's heart, the vines awake
A verdant beast, souls he takes
Green sovereign calls, its pulses bind
Plant-hybrid drones, steal humankind
Anunnaki's wrath, the forest taints
Colonial scars, sprout deadly paints

Shatter the abyss, tear its vines apart
Cast SCP-4519 from creation's heart
To the void we send its demonic bloom
By Christ's holy name, its darkness consume
Oh Heavenly Father, Your words are flame
Seal this Apollyon in the abyss' claim

Vines entwined where hope once stood
Hive mind grows in sacred wood
Dark LTD seeks its primal might
EK-class doom in endless night
Africa cries beneath colonial chains
Yet its abyss binds life in veins

Revelation's fire burns the beast's design
Psalm 96, praise creation's shrine
No vine can stand against the Spirit's might
The abyss awaits in eternal night
From Congo's pain to the world's last cry
Your mercy, oh God, will never die

In Jesus' name, with Spirit's grace
We decode its lies, recode its place

The abyss, SCP-4519 falls
Sealed forever by Your holy calls
Amen

Shattered Crown (SCP-4825 — Order Restored)

In Jakarta streets, the crown of insanity
Before the entire stars' chaos fueling fears
Sovereign's riots break, looted hopes in anarchy's wake
In Enokian lies the servants bow, colonial scars ignite the night

Shatter the shattered crown, tear its chaos apart
SCP-4825, from the human heart
To the abyss we send its memetic chain
By Christ's holy name, order rises again
Our Heavenly Father, Your word's our shield
Seal this Apollyon in the abyss now

Wrath where peace once stood, servants crown their darkened flood
Deity craves its anarchy, K-Class looming endlessly
Aeons cry need global change, yet its crown binds hope in vain
Yes, its crown binds hope in vain, control's death the way
The chain

Revelation's truth burns the crown's design
Psalm 72 restores rule divine
No chaos can stand against the Spirit's might
The abyss waits in eternal night
From Jakarta streets to the world's last cry
Your mercy, O God, will never die

Shatter the shattered crown, tear its chaos apart
SCP-4825, from the human heart
To the abyss we send its memetic chain
By Christ's holy name, order rises again
Our Heavenly Father, Your word's our shield

Seal this Apollyon in the abyss now

In Jesus' name, with Spirit's grace
We decode its lies, recode its place
To the abyss, sealed forever by Your holy call
Amen, O Father, Your peace we sing

Flame Tyrant Quenched (SCP-4802 Containment)

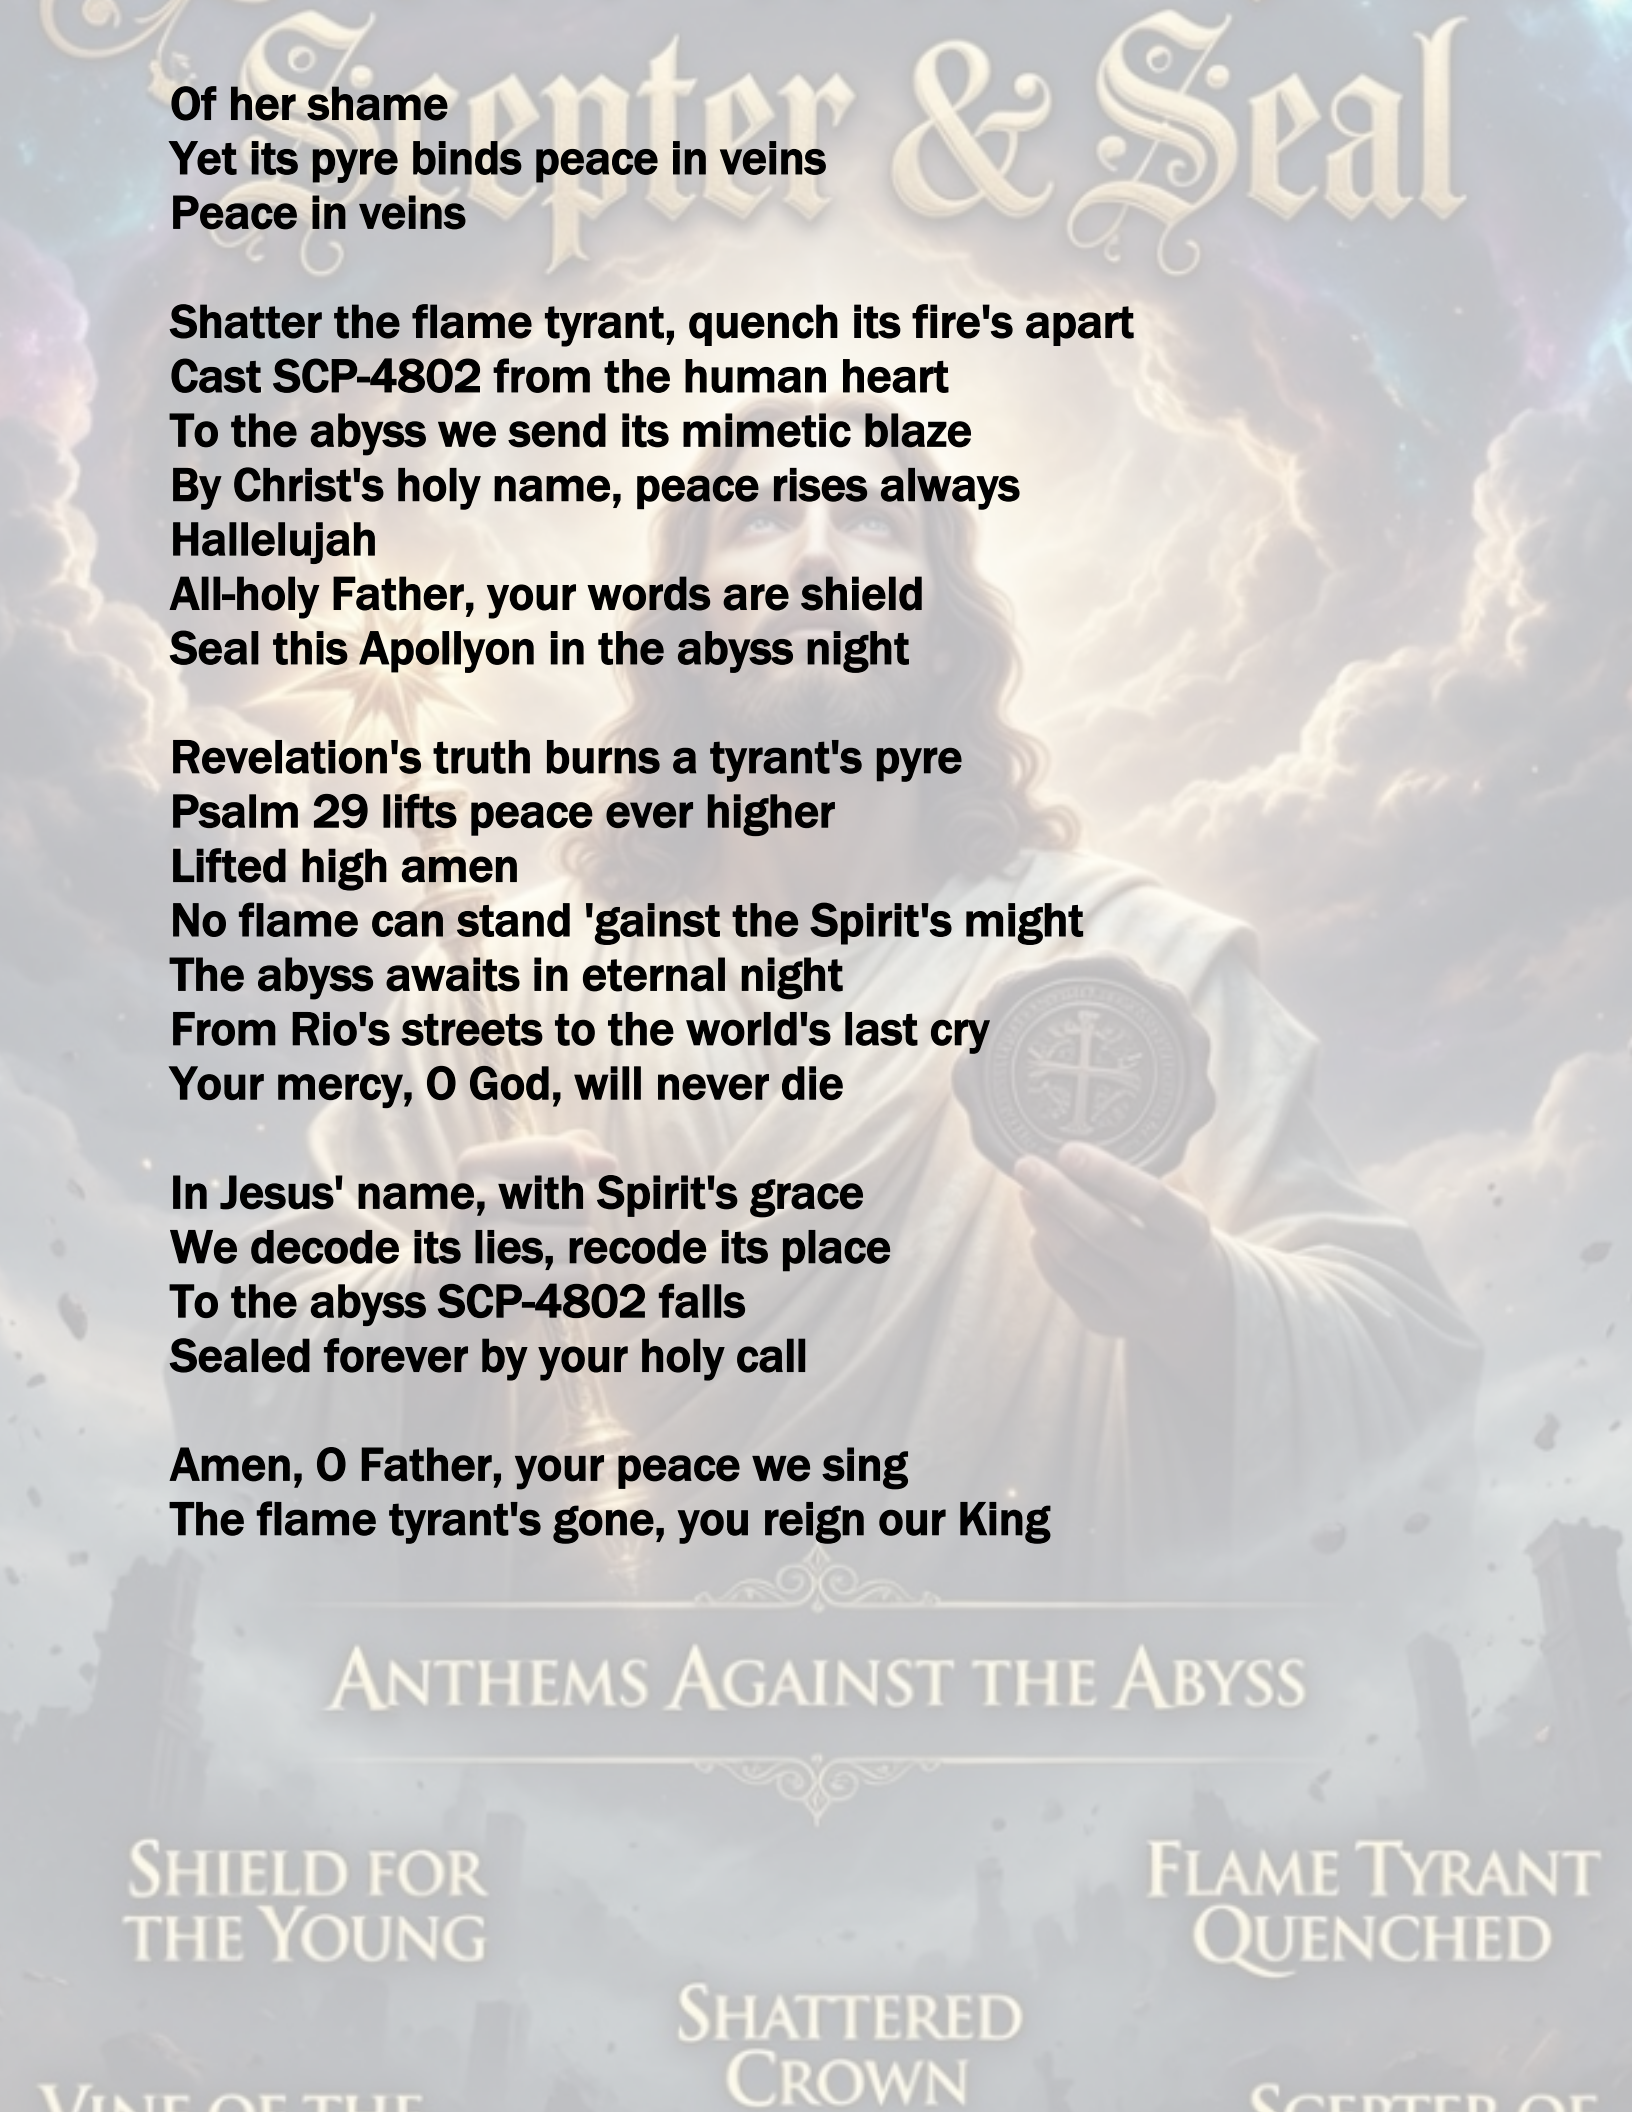

In Rio's streets the fire ignites
Flames ascend
SCP-4802's wrath the night it runs
Night it runs
Flames, tyrants call, arson's spread
Spreads oh no
Public halls and homes burn, chaos treads
Chaos treads
Demonic fire, the favelas blaze
Blaze they blaze
Colonial scars fuel fiery daze
Fiery daze oh

Shatter the flame tyrant, quench its fire's apart
Cast SCP-4802 from the human heart
To the abyss we send its mimetic blaze
By Christ's holy name, peace rises always Hallelujah
All-holy Father, your words are shield
Seal this Apollyon in the abyss night

Torched dreams fall where hope once stood
Once stood oh
Chaos feeds its fiery flood
God stood
Dark entity craves its burning might
Burn beware
SK-class doom in endless fight
Battle doom
Favelas cry 'neath colonial chains

Scepter of Sovereign Light (Markets & Idols)

In glass and snow, SCP-2251 gleams
A village traps the mind in dreams
Babylon's visions cloaked in light
It lures Earth's own market's might Corinthians warn of Satan's guise
Your truth unveils his cunning lies
With 11:14 we break its spell
Your radiance frees where shadows dwell

Scepter of sovereign light, ascend
Your glory shines where darkness ends
From globes to shades, from songs to vines
All bow before your will divine
Psalm 46 stills the chaos flight
Your victory reigns in endless light

A disc of steel, SCP-271 scribes
Akkadian seals in chaos vibes
Its touch warps trade's own steady frame
Yet Exodus binds the idol's claim
Your law restores what man defiled
Your order guards your sacred child
With 32:4 we cleanse its tainted art
Your truth renews the market's heart

Scepter of sovereign light, ascend
Your glory shines where darkness ends
From globes to shades, from songs to vines
All bow before your will divine
Psalm 46 stills the chaos flight

SCPTER OF

Your victory reigns in endless light

In shadows deep, SCP-280 hunts
Like Lamashtu's curse, its terror stunts
Earth's cities quake, trade's pulse grows dim
Yet John's own light prevails o'er grim
Somers' night fear no longer reigns
Your dawn dispels all fear and pain
With 1:5 we banish dark's cruel sting
Your glory makes the heavens sing

A cup of gold, SCP-2994 pours
Greek plenty spills on market shores
Its gifts turn dire, a deadly stream
Yet Revelation wakes the dreamer's scheme
Your wealth is true, no false supply
Your mercy lifts where markets cry
With 3:17 we halt its reckless flow
Your grace abounds where rivers grow

From squids to swords, from trees to bliss
From games that curse, to vines that hiss
Earth's markets falter, trade's at stake
Yet Timothy's courage none can shake
Through Sumer's dust, through Greece's lore
Your scepter shines forevermore

With 1:7 we rise where shadows fall
Your sovereign light redeems it all
From 1 to 50, all shall know
Your scepter's light will ever grow
No trap, no shade, no song's cruel art
Can break the bond of heaven's heart

Your love protects where evil's flawed
With innocence saved, we end their wicked play
In Jesus' name, Your light's the way

Concrete spreads SCP-7-5-0's blight
Mesopotamia stone where hearts take flight
It warps earth's soul, trades hope confined
Yet Christ's own scepter frees mankind

Your spirit frees where captives dwell
With life restored, we crush its wicked reign
In Jesus' name, Your love sustains

From boxes cruel to deals that cage
