Album 83 Song 1

The Lap That Could Not Be Erased

Story Song (Spoken Prayer)

In the name of Jesus —

Lord of the seas.

We stand on 3401 to 3500.

We refuse the fast lap that erases the mind.

We refuse the sky-script that steals the heights.

We refuse the crime that bends the real.

We refuse the choke-point of Hormuz fear.

We refuse the den, the arena, the slug-trail.

We name and bind —

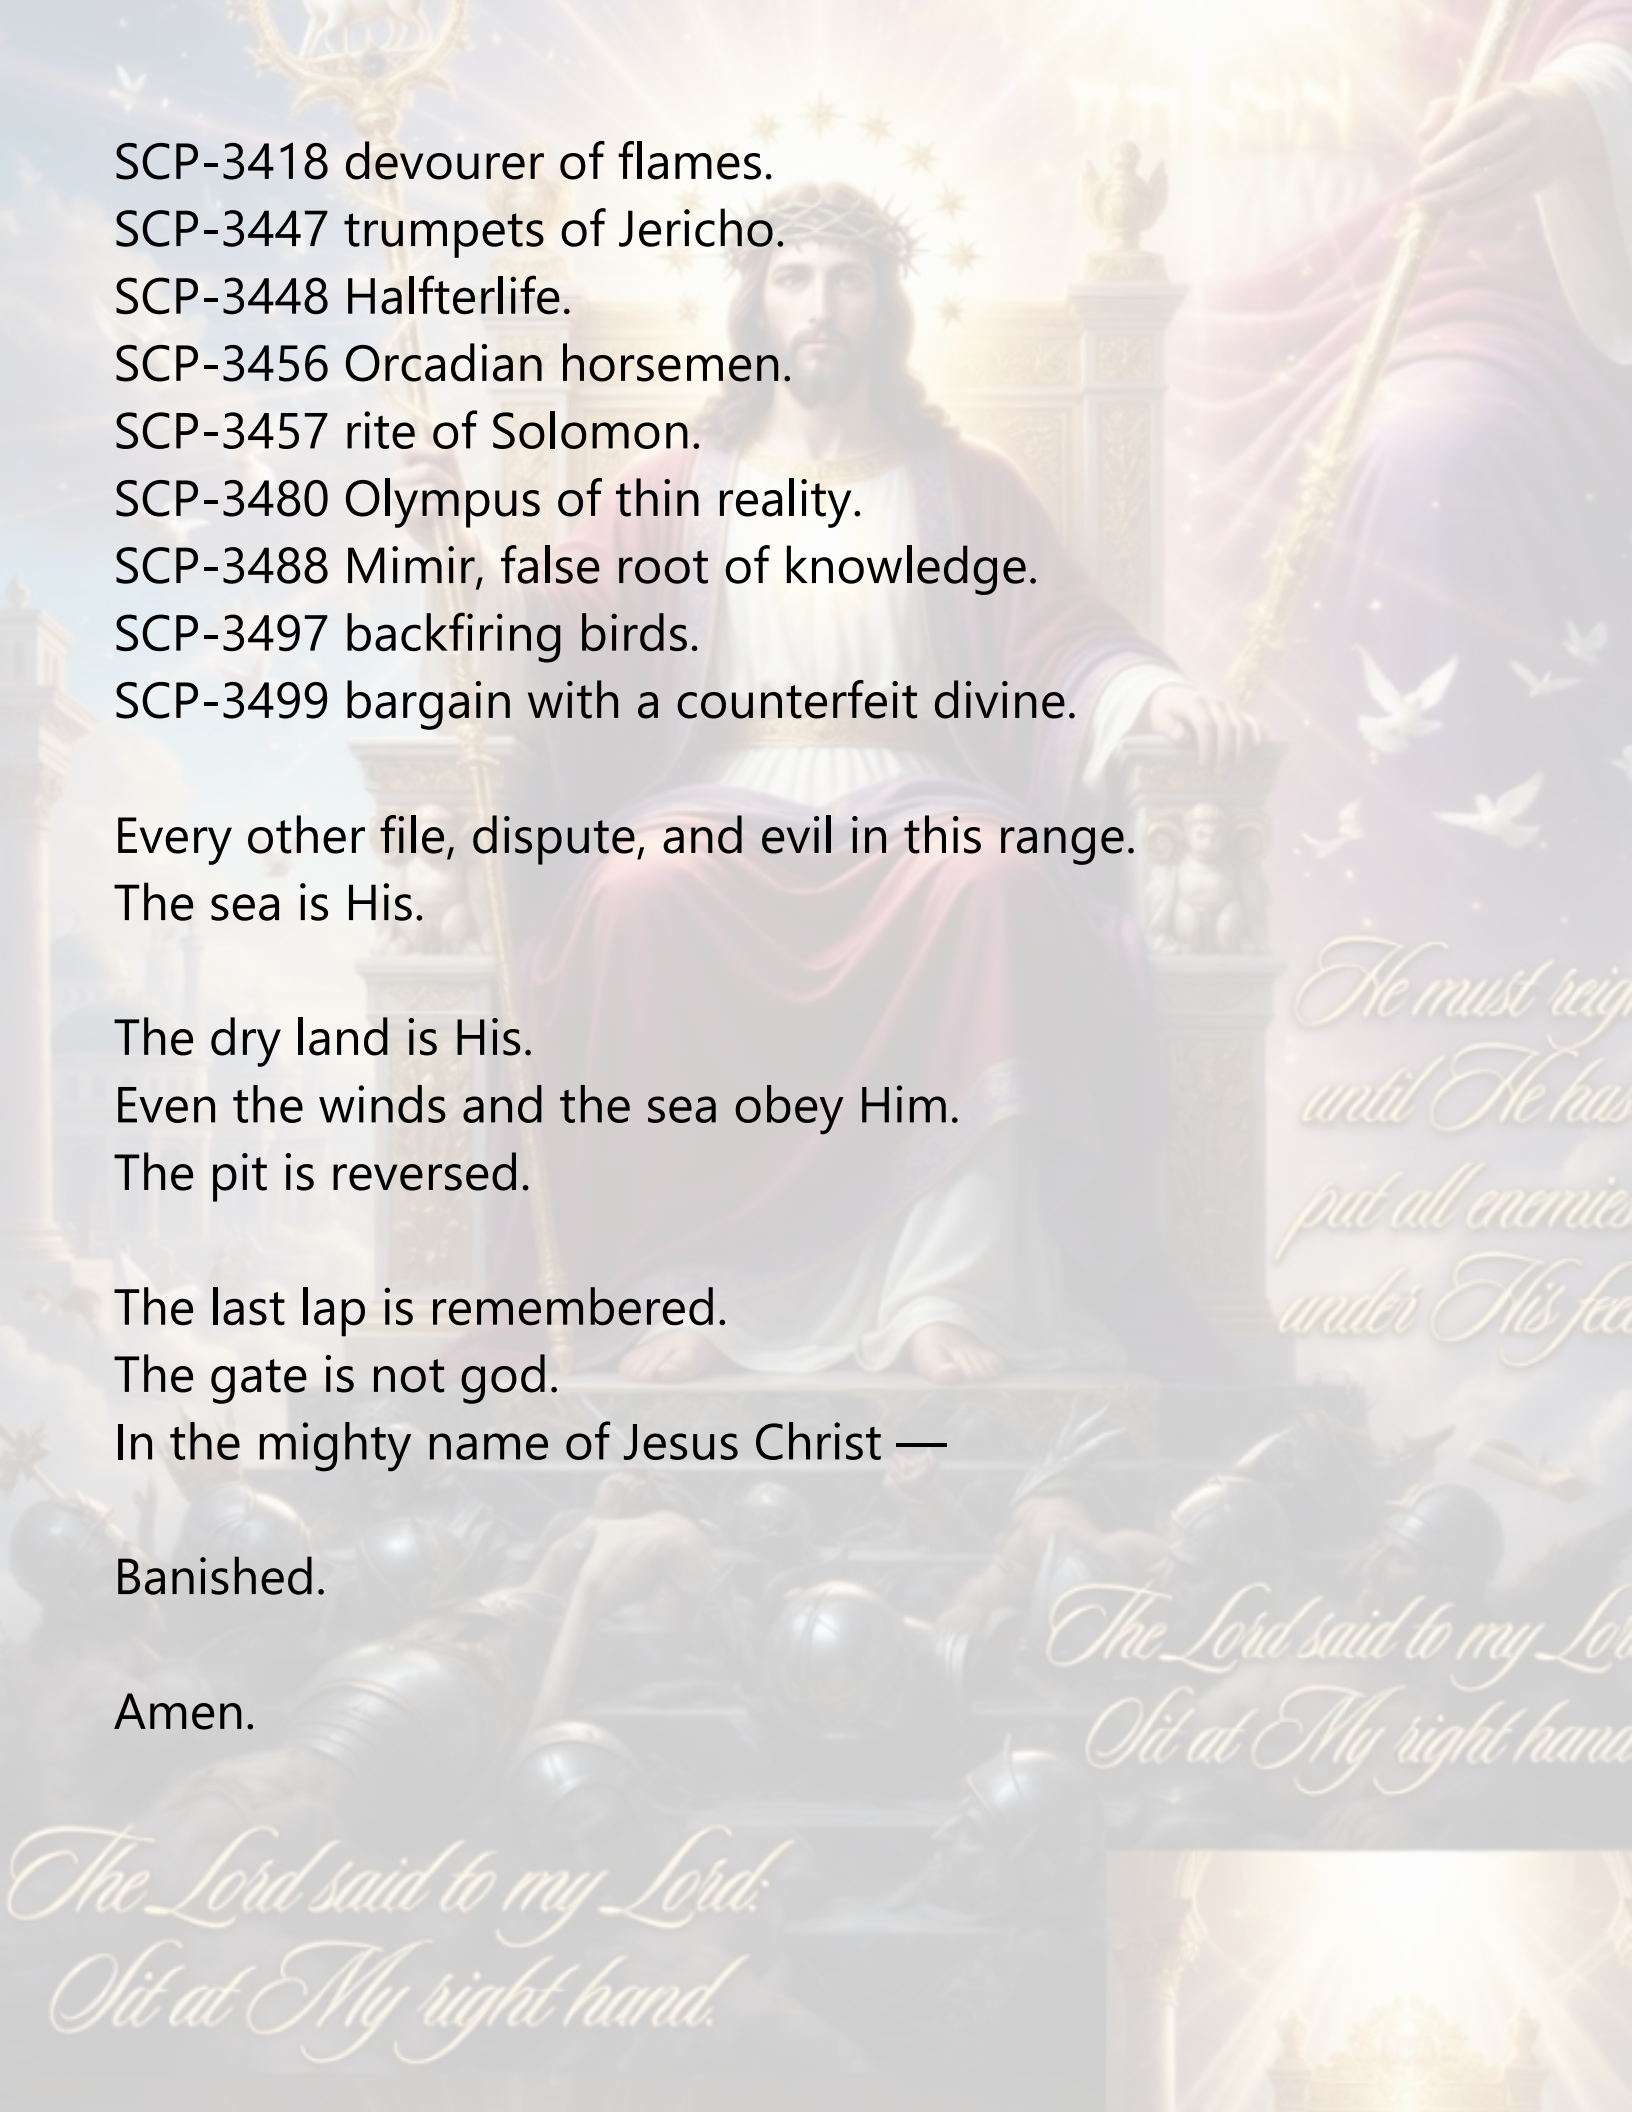

SCP-3400 rorqual infection.

SCP-3417 preachers of Terzan 2.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

SCP-3418 devourer of flames.
SCP-3447 trumpets of Jericho.
SCP-3448 Halfterlife.
SCP-3456 Orcadian horsemen.
SCP-3457 rite of Solomon.
SCP-3480 Olympus of thin reality.
SCP-3488 Mimir, false root of knowledge.
SCP-3497 backfiring birds.
SCP-3499 bargain with a counterfeit divine.

Every other file, dispute, and evil in this range.
The sea is His.

The dry land is His.
Even the winds and the sea obey Him.
The pit is reversed.

The last lap is remembered.
The gate is not god.
In the mighty name of Jesus Christ —

Banished.

Amen.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Song of Parables (Jesus)

The Race the Storm Could Not Steal

A man ran a lap so fast the crowd forgot the start.
Another measured the stars to own the night.
Another sold a bent reality at the narrow gate.

They threw the faithful into a den of lions,
then into a stadium of beasts,
then into a modern pit,
then left slugs to finish what roar could not.

The Son of Man stood in the boat.
He did not need the speed.
He did not need the choke-point.
He spoke — and the sea lay down.

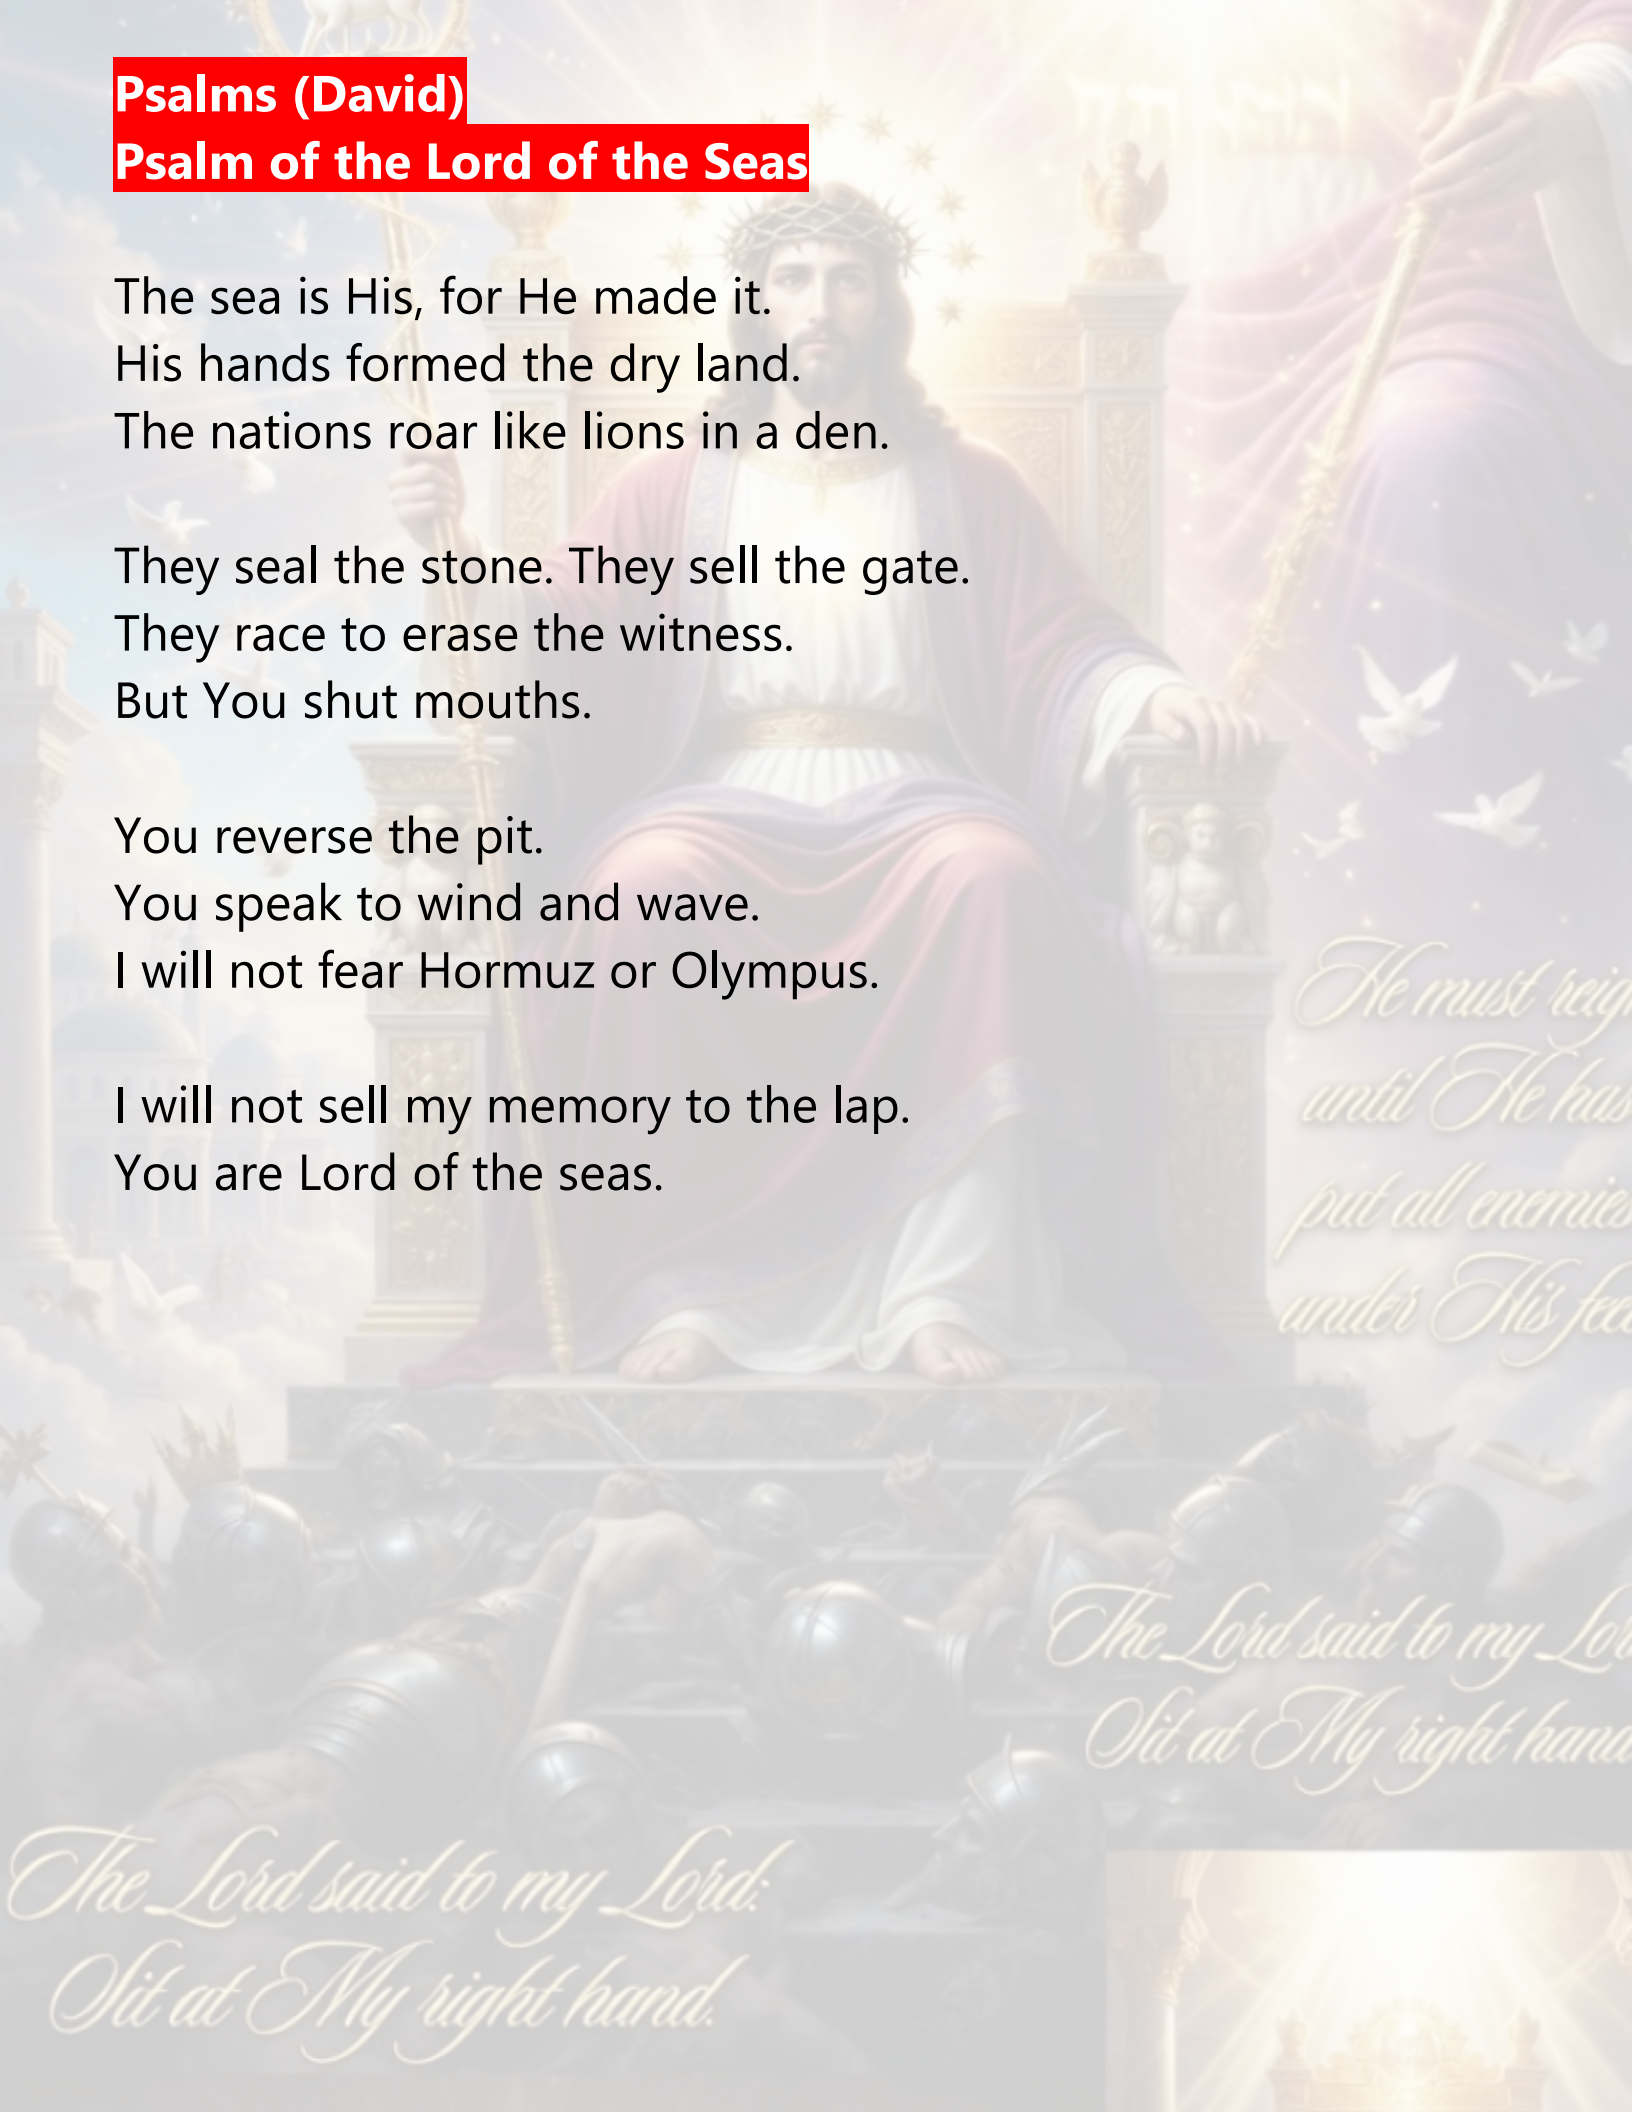

The forgotten lap returned.
The den reversed.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Psalms (David)

Psalm of the Lord of the Seas

The sea is His, for He made it.
His hands formed the dry land.
The nations roar like lions in a den.

They seal the stone. They sell the gate.
They race to erase the witness.
But You shut mouths.

You reverse the pit.
You speak to wind and wave.
I will not fear Hormuz or Olympus.

I will not sell my memory to the lap.
You are Lord of the seas.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Proverbs (Solomon)

Wisdom Over Speed and Gates

The one who trusts velocity to hide the crime inherits a blank lap and an open judgment.

The one who bargains with a false divine buys a trumpet that falls on himself.

The one who holds a choke-point as a god forgets the Maker of the water.

Fear the Lord.

Remember the Word.

The sea will not crown a thief.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

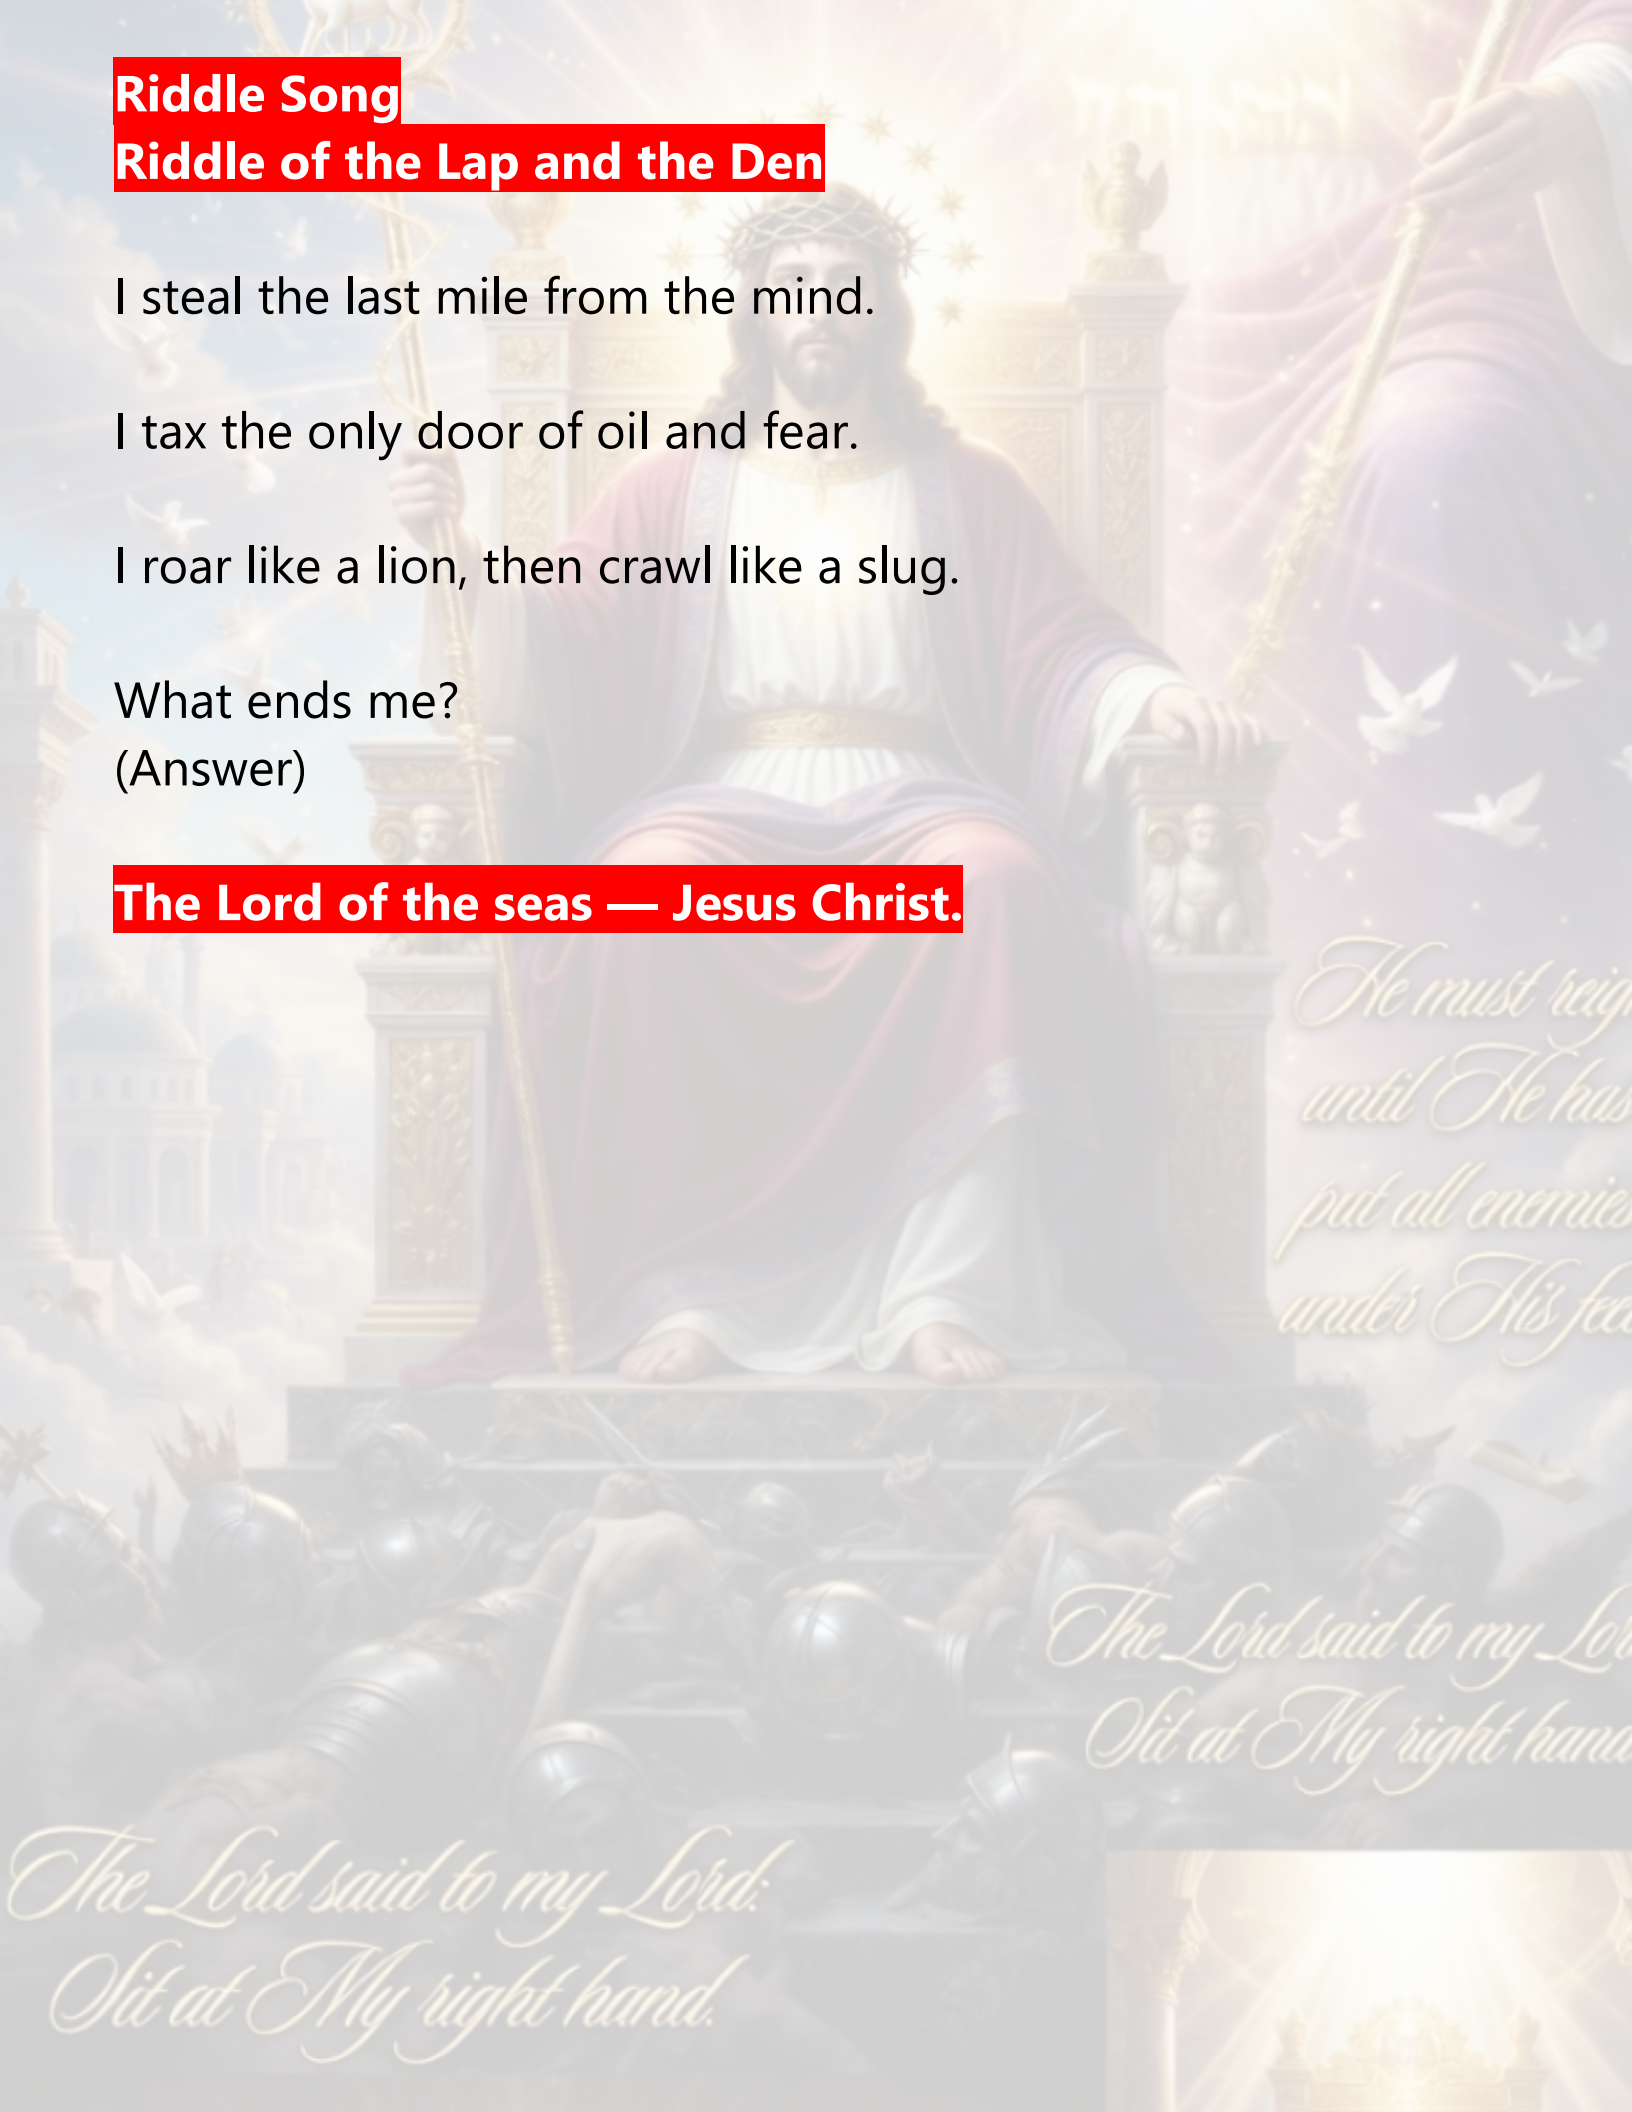

Haiku Song
Narrow Gate

Fast water forgets—
One Word stills the choke-point sea.
The den turns around.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Riddle Song

Riddle of the Lap and the Den

I steal the last mile from the mind.

I tax the only door of oil and fear.

I roar like a lion, then crawl like a slug.

What ends me?

(Answer)

The Lord of the seas — Jesus Christ.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Velocity Psalm (Racing Song)

Green flag / false forget / checkered Light.

We will not lose the lap.

His Word keeps the time.

Finish in Jesus' name.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Road of the Word (Travel Song)

From Harmozeia to the sealed den,
From Roman sand to the modern pit,
The Word walks the water.
Every gate is a path under His feet.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Ballad of the Reversed Den

They threw Daniel in; the angel shut the mouths.

Rome made a show of beasts.

The plotters fell into their own pit.

The remnant comes out whole.

The slug cannot finish what Christ has overturned.

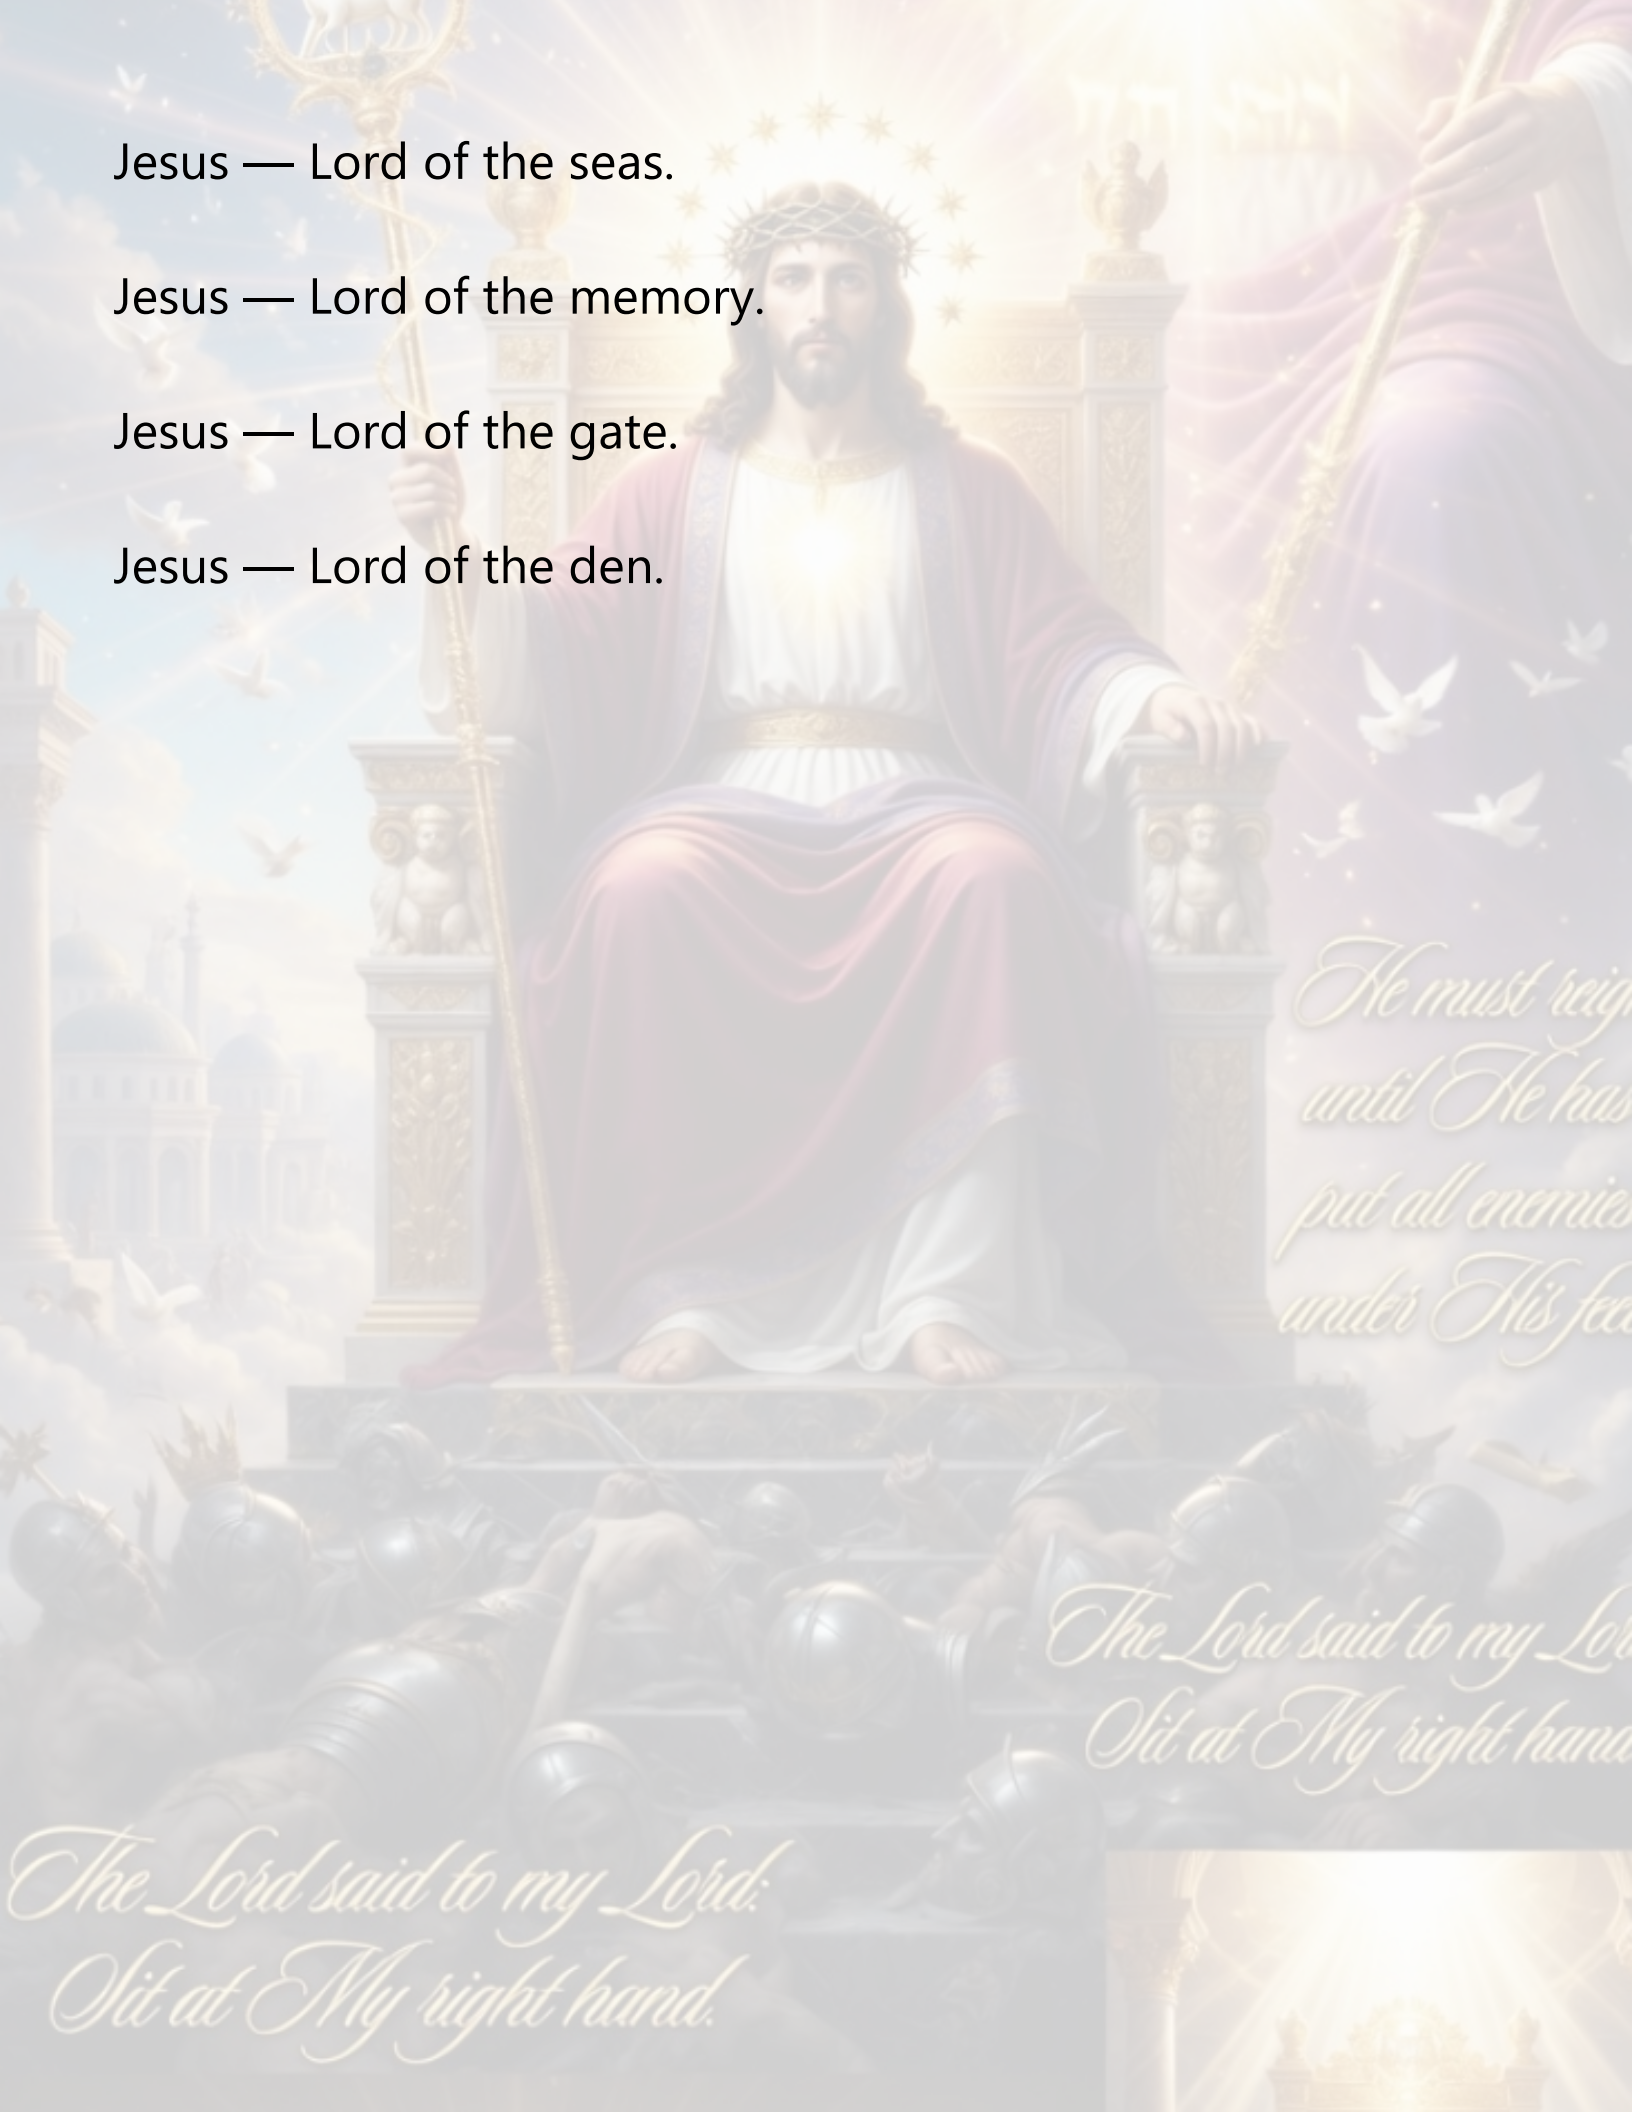

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

Name-Chant

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Jesus — Lord of the seas.

Jesus — Lord of the memory.

Jesus — Lord of the gate.

Jesus — Lord of the den.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Exit Song (Deliverance)

Out of the lap of erasure.

Out of the thin Olympus.

Out of the Hormuz fear.

Out of the arena and the slime.

Delivered by the Name.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

Rest in the Sealed Den (Lullaby)

Sleep, remnant.

The stone is not stronger than the angel.

The sea is already His.

Rest. He remembers what speed tried to wipe.

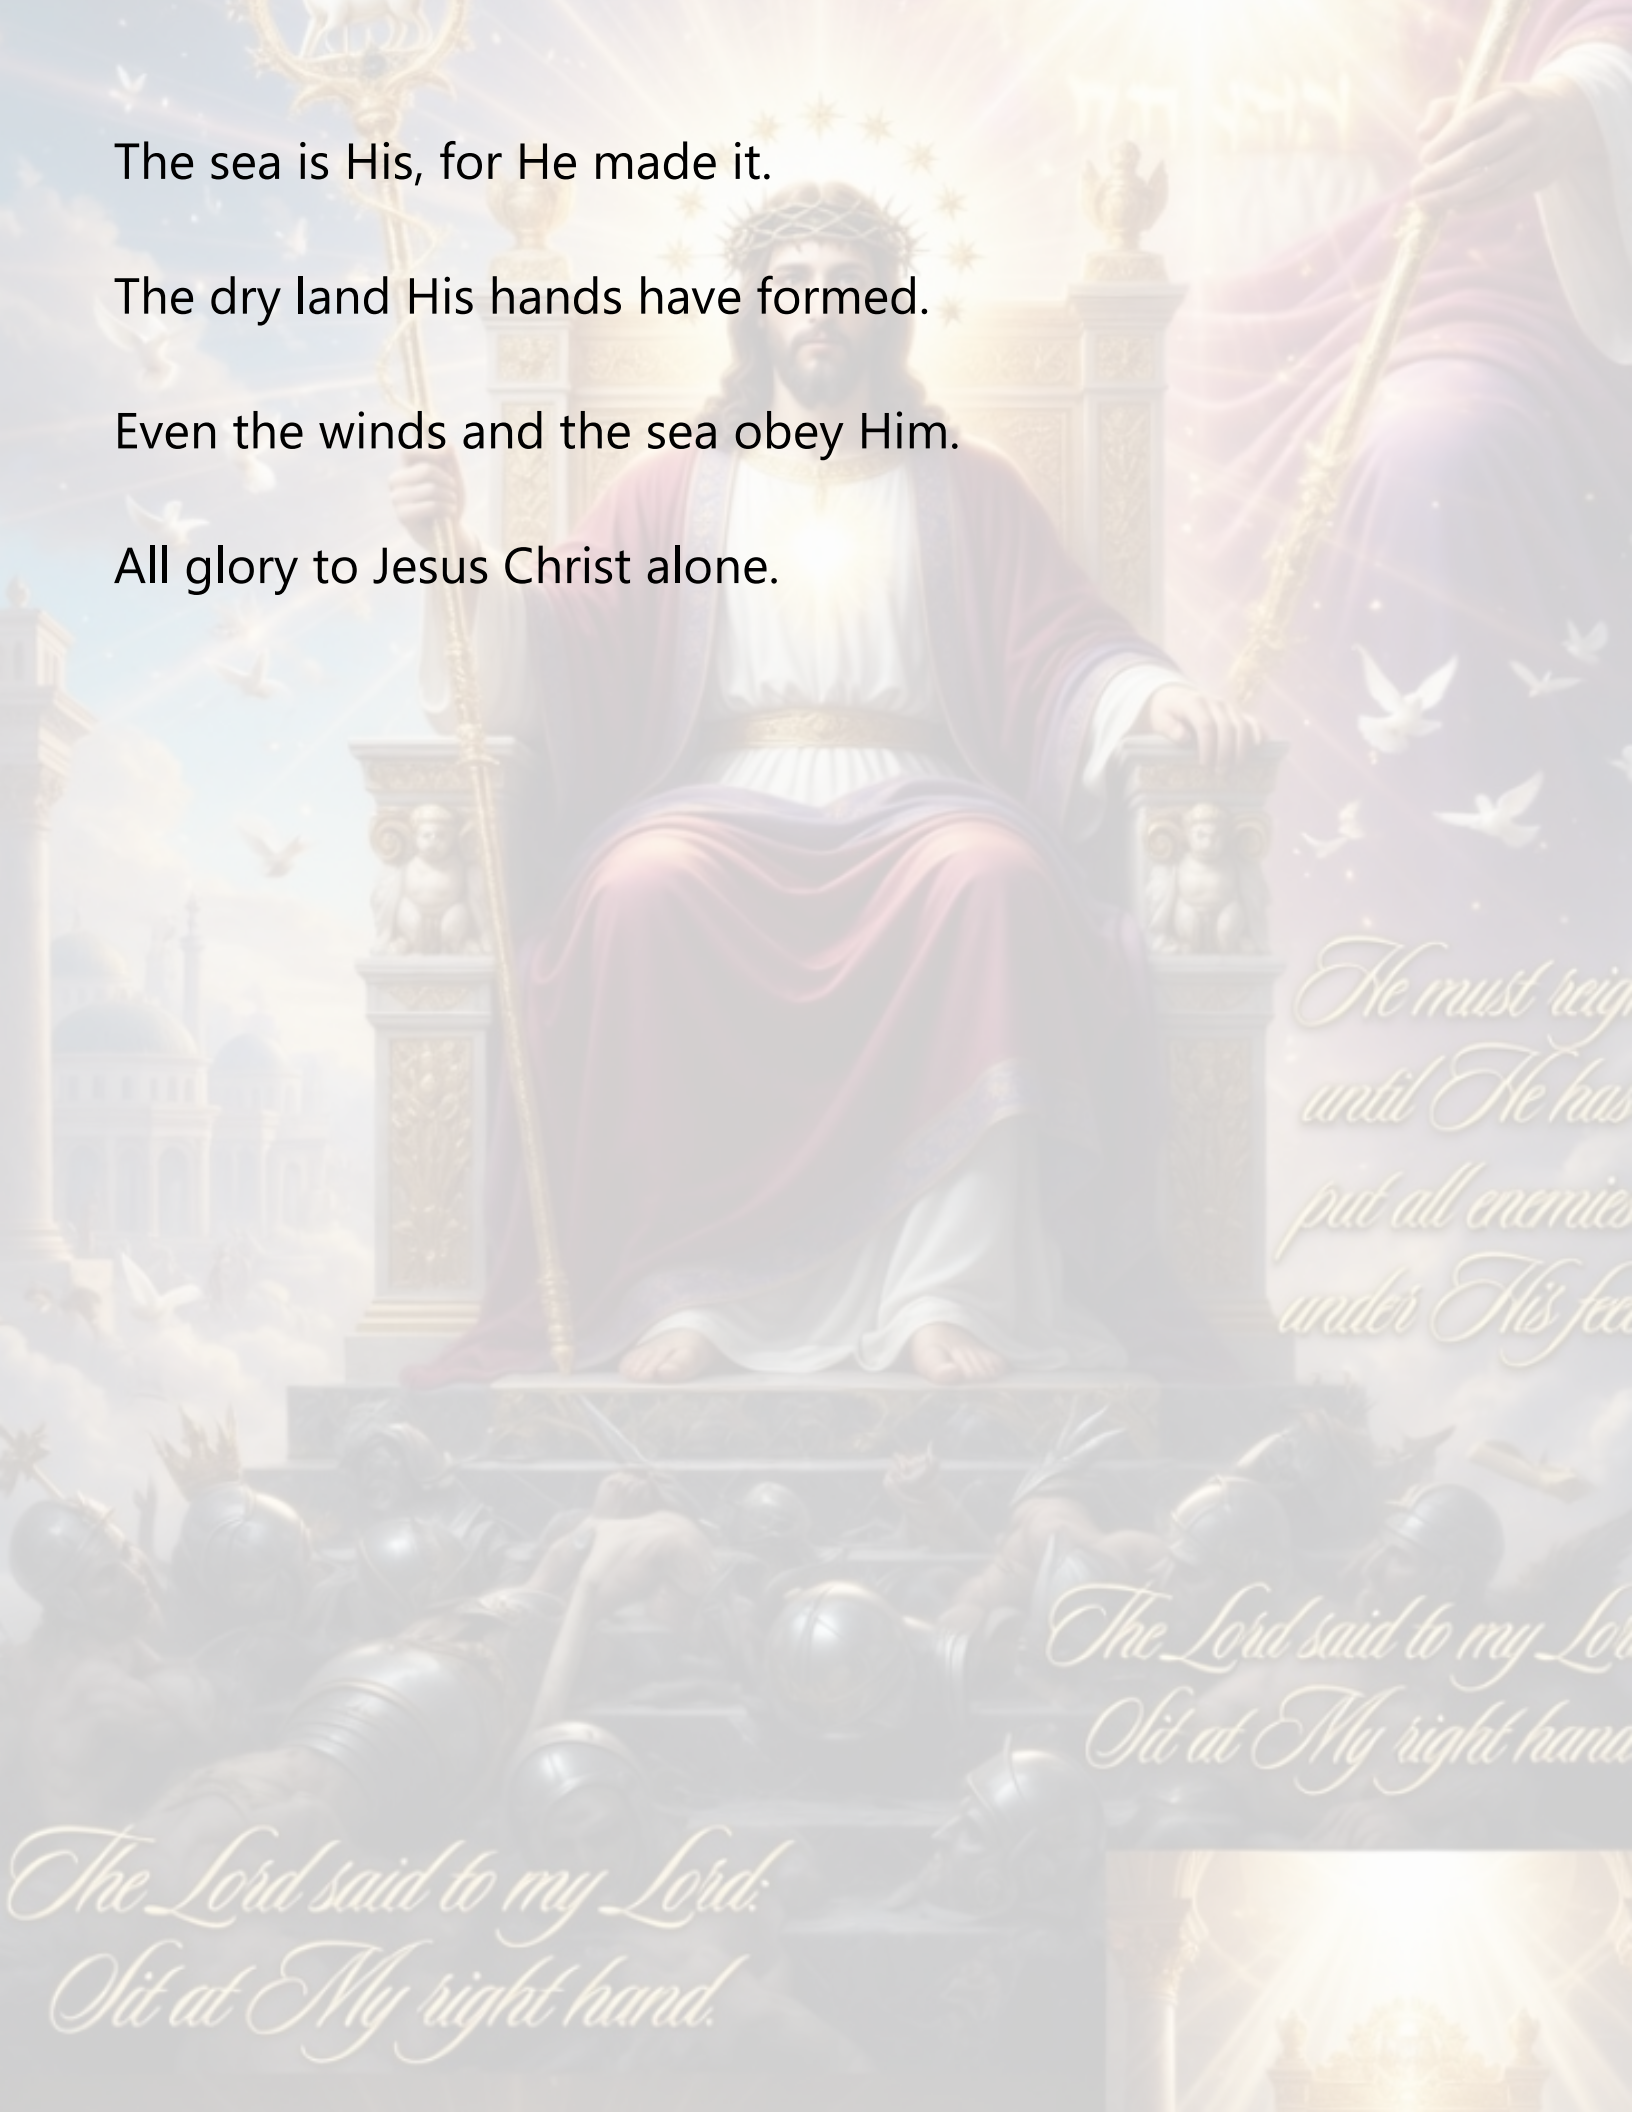

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord
Sit at My right hand*

Remnant Anthem (Hymn)

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

The background of the entire image is a religious illustration. In the center, Jesus Christ is seated on a golden throne, wearing a white robe and a purple cloak, with a crown of thorns on his head. He holds a golden scepter in his right hand. The throne is flanked by golden pillars. In the background, a city with domes and minarets is visible under a bright, hazy sky. In the foreground, several soldiers in armor are lying on the ground, suggesting a scene of conquest or judgment. The overall tone is majestic and divine.

The sea is His, for He made it.

The dry land His hands have formed.

Even the winds and the sea obey Him.

All glory to Jesus Christ alone.

*He must reign
until He has
put all enemies
under His feet*

*The Lord said to my Lord
Sit at My right hand*

*The Lord said to my Lord:
Sit at My right hand.*

The Hymn That Would Not Be Stolen

Story Song (Spoken Prayer)

In the name of Jesus —

Lord of the seas.

Lord of every land.

We stand on 3501 to 3600.

We refuse the stolen pole.

We refuse the colonial chain.

We refuse the phantom radio.

We refuse the false past.

We refuse Marduk on the tablet.

We refuse the looted coffin.

We refuse the algorithm that sells another history.

Song of Parables (Jesus)

The Pole That Could Not Be Owned

A house of prayer was carved in wood.
Men cut it down and shipped the face.
A radio sang a decade that never happened.

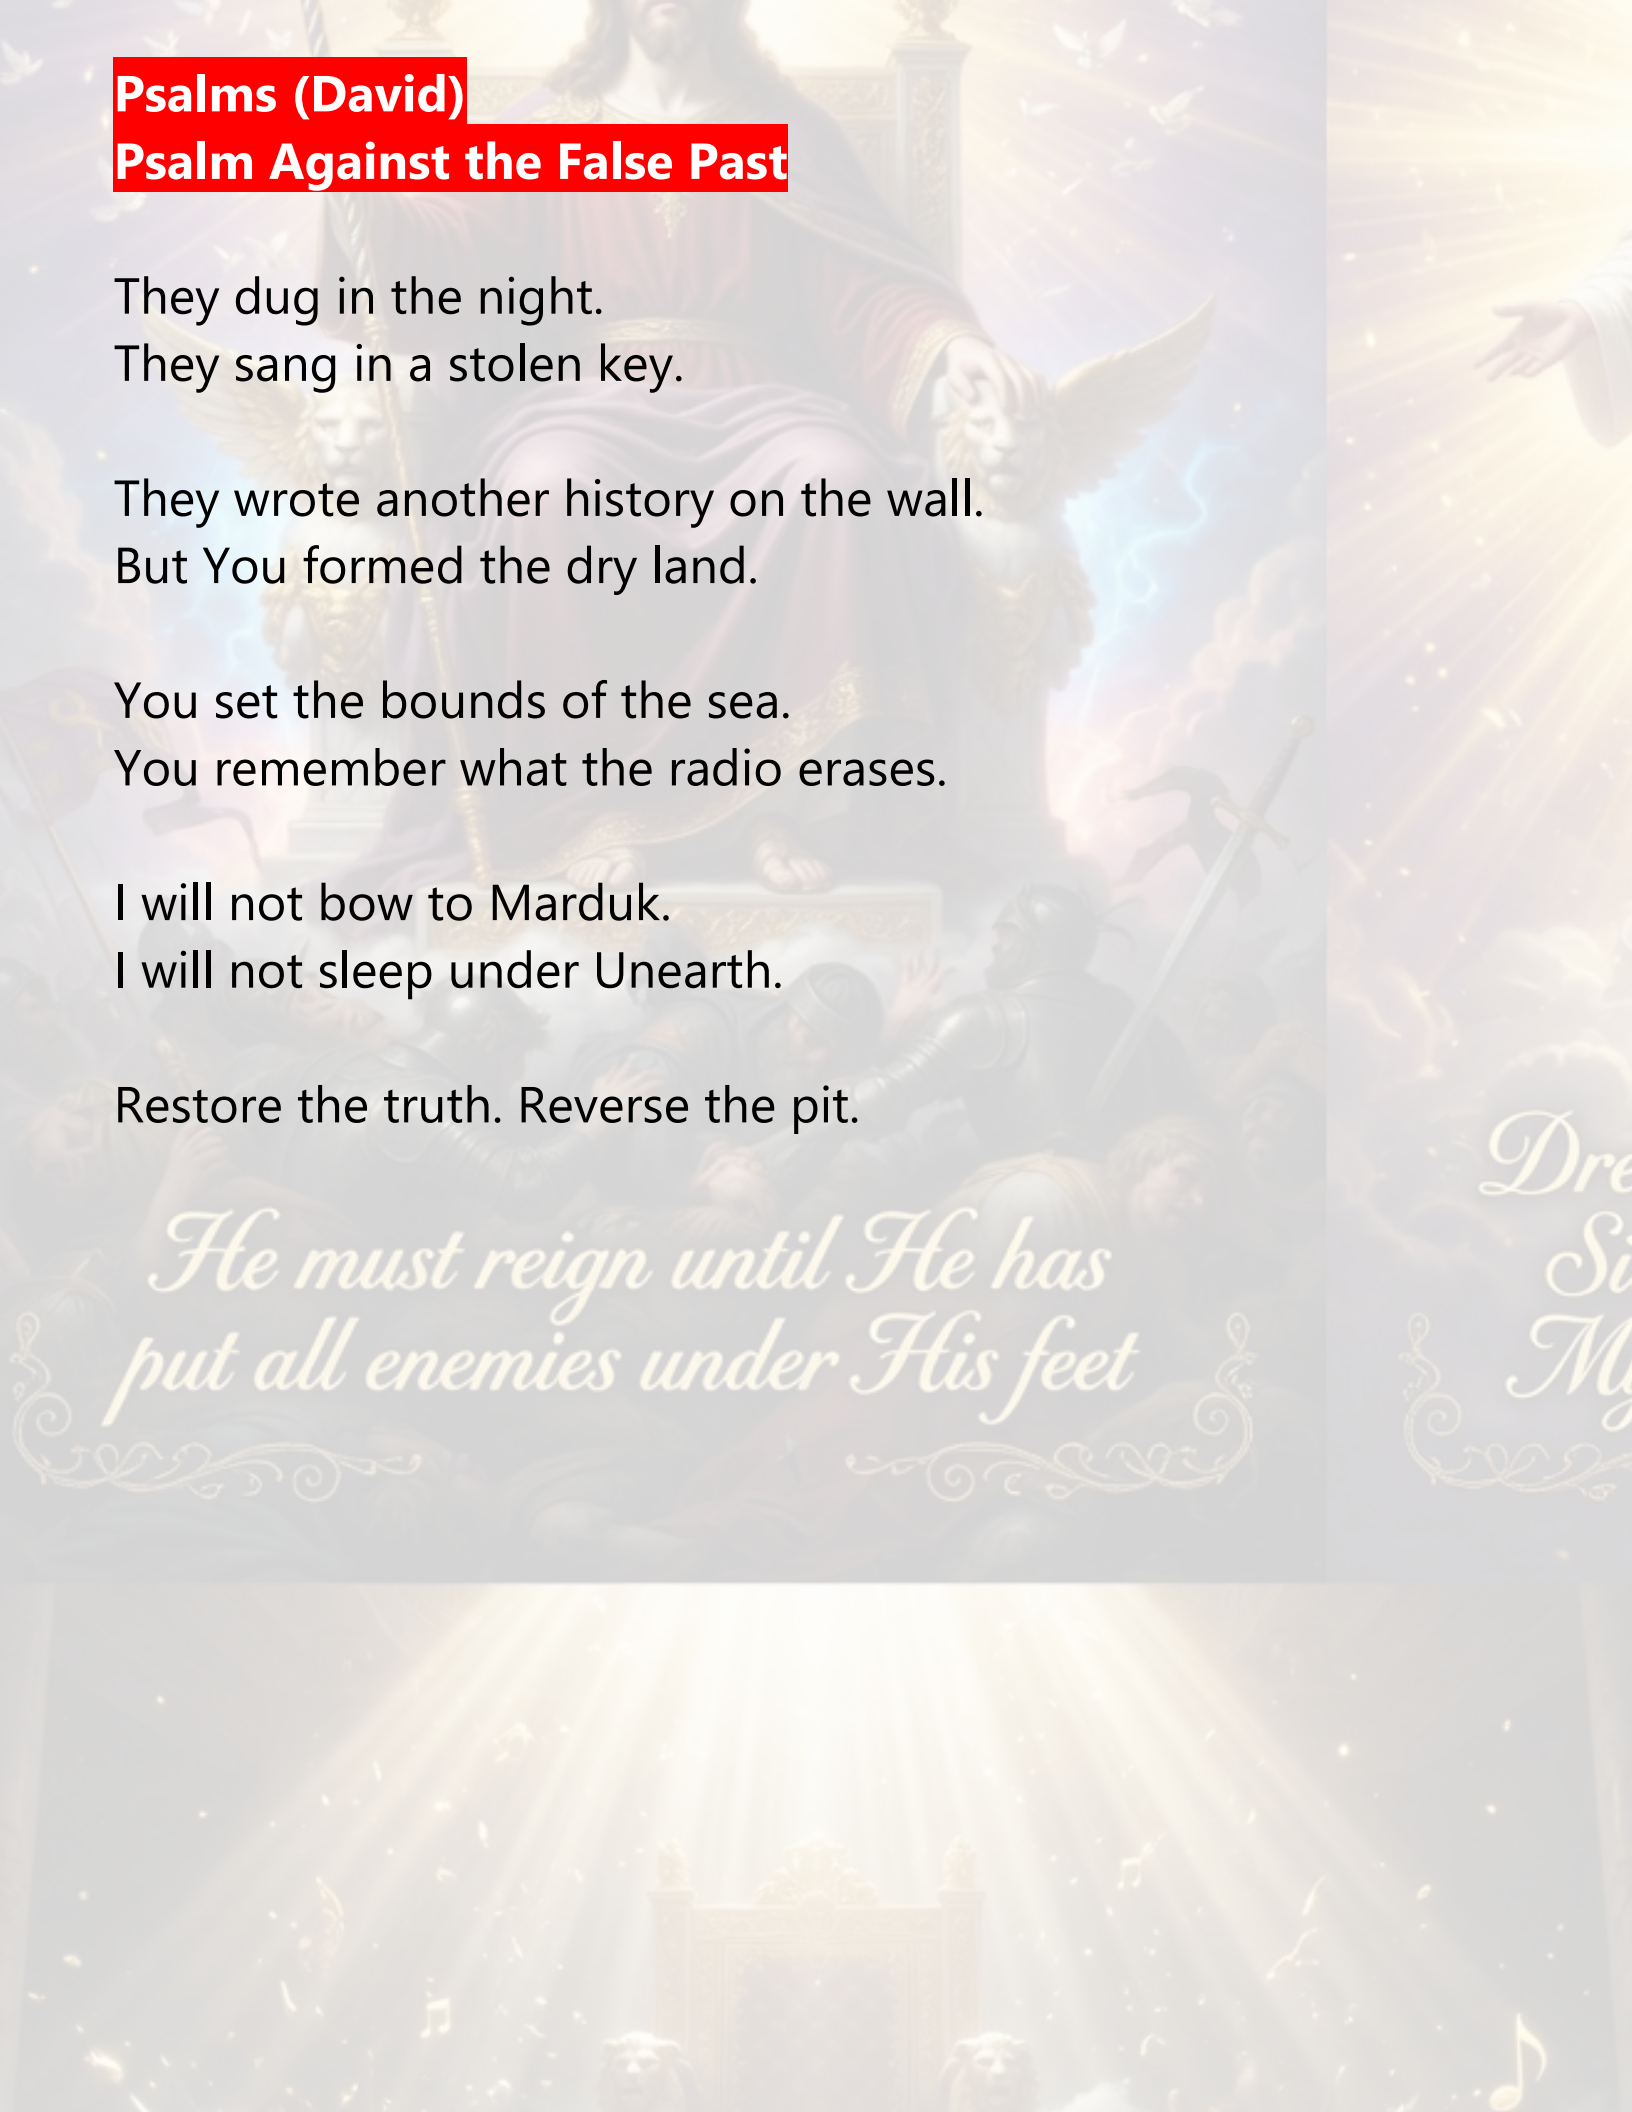

A tablet named a city-god.
A coffin was opened for display.

The Son of Man said:
What you loot you cannot keep.
What you broadcast you cannot make true.

The stone the builders stole
Still belongs to the Maker of land and sea.

He must reign until He has put all enemies under His feet

Psalms (David)

Psalm Against the False Past

They dug in the night.
They sang in a stolen key.

They wrote another history on the wall.
But You formed the dry land.

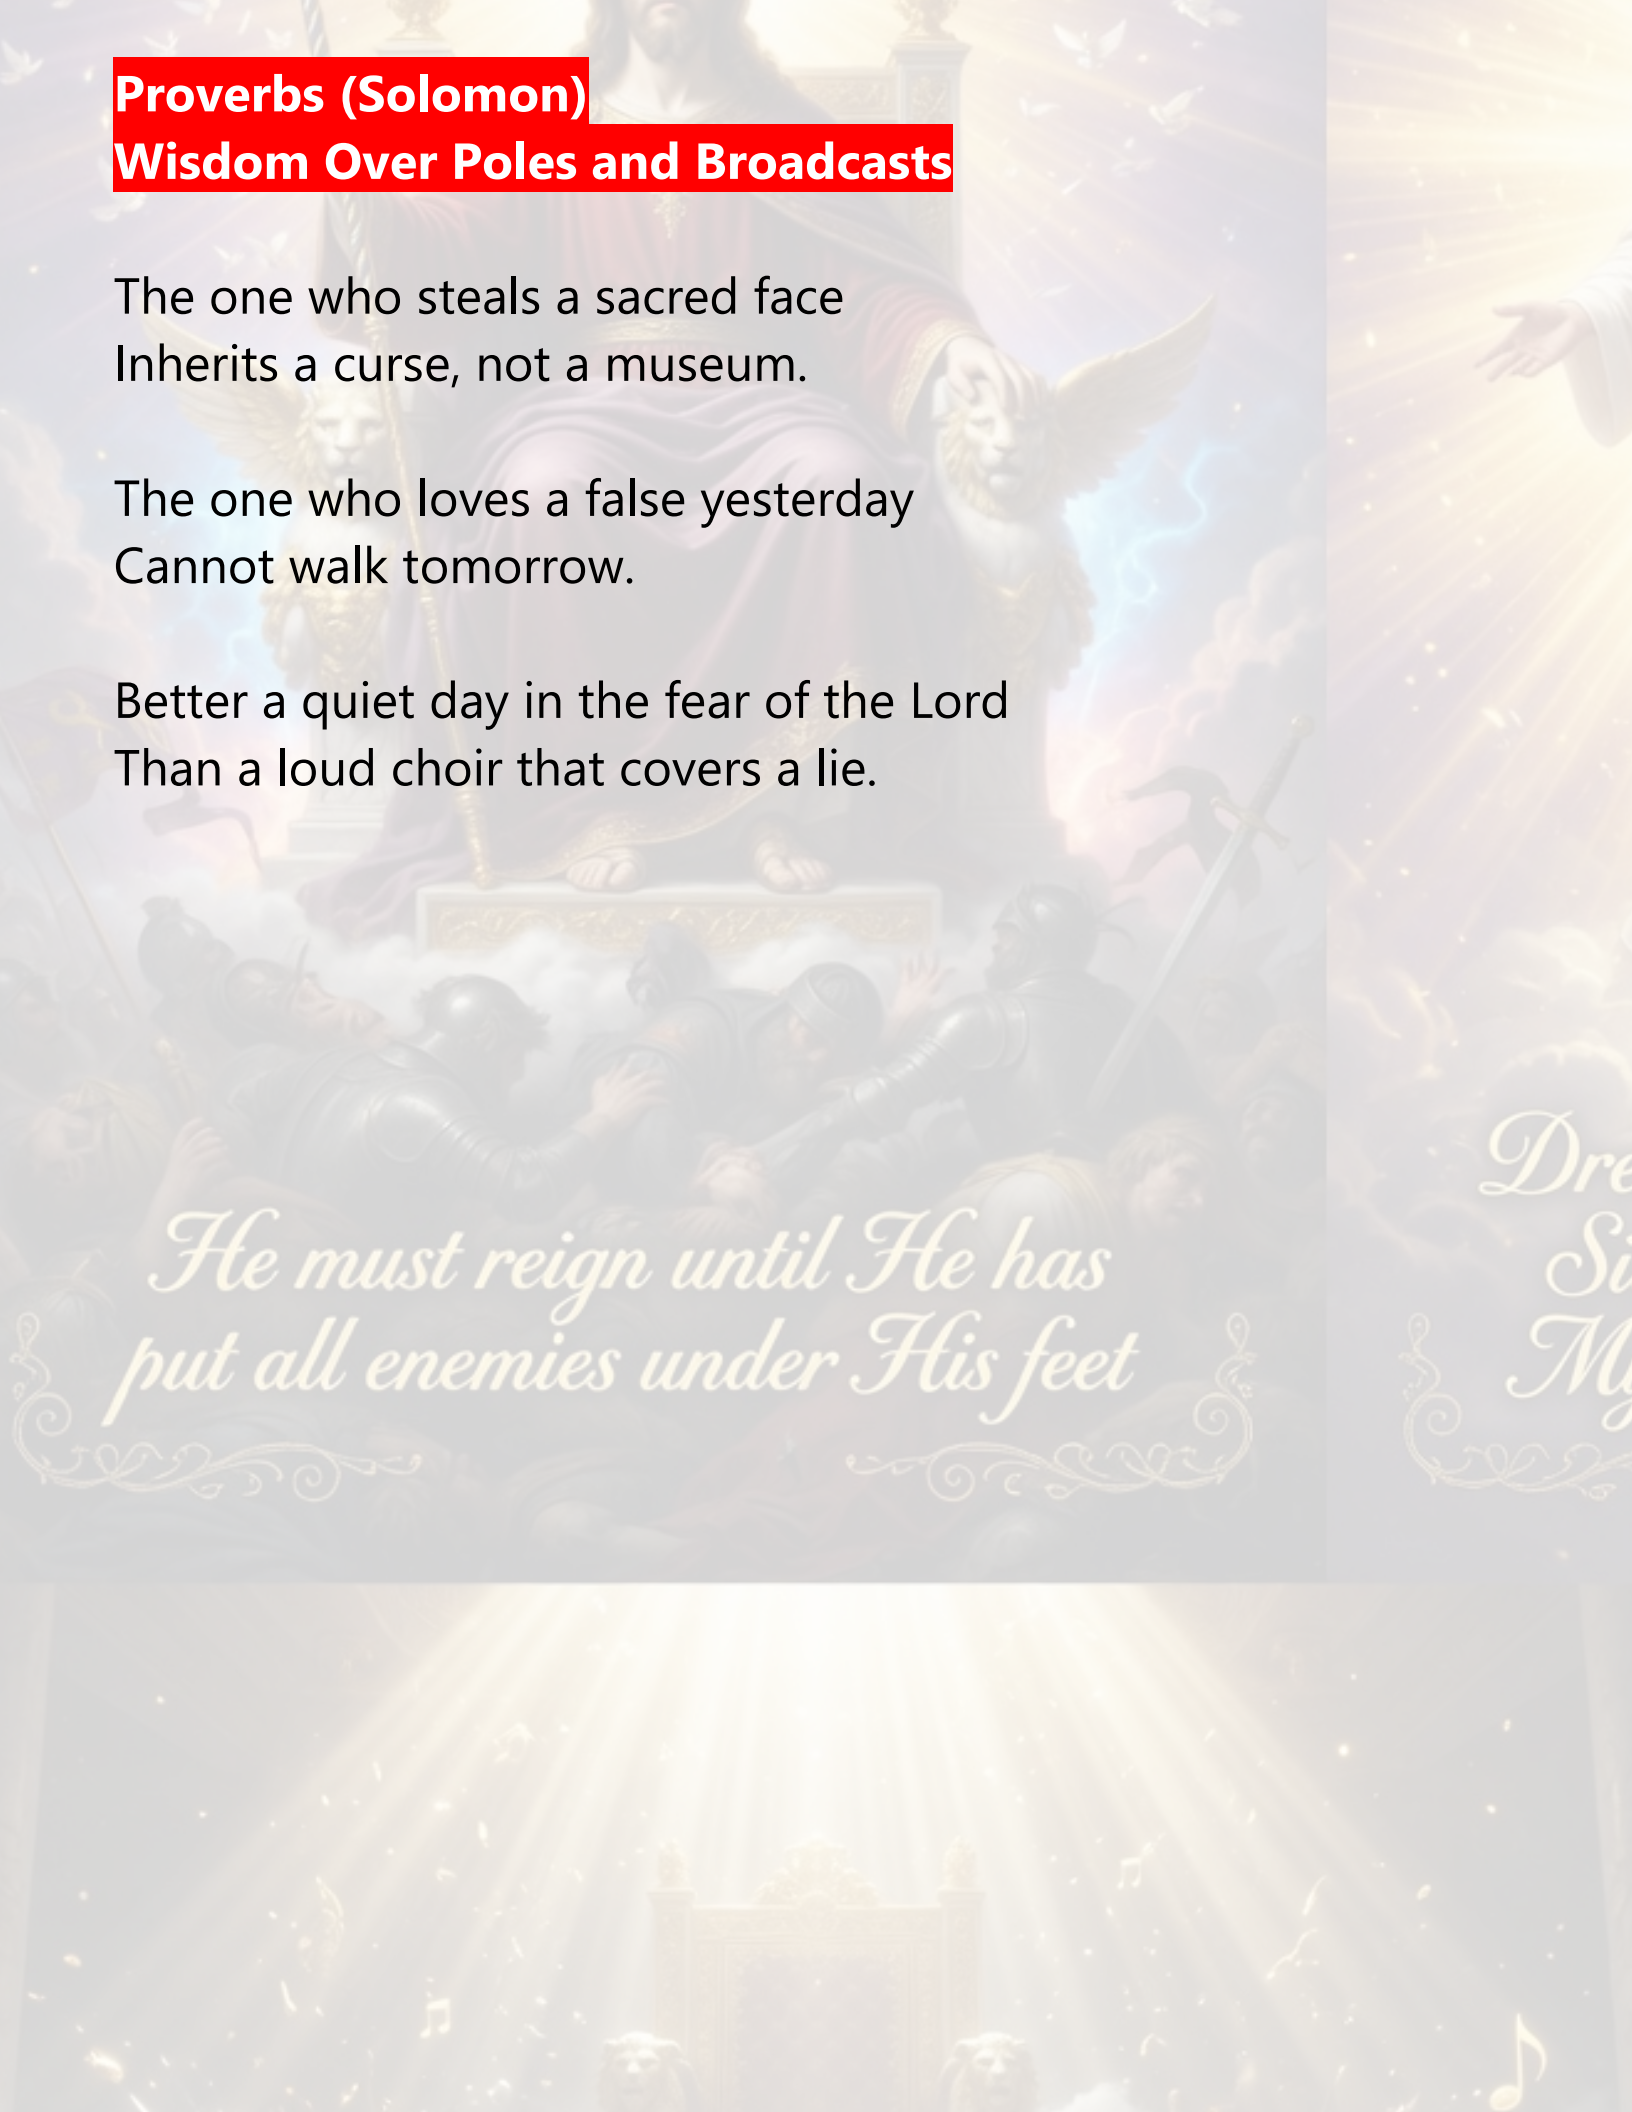

You set the bounds of the sea.
You remember what the radio erases.

I will not bow to Marduk.
I will not sleep under Uneath.

Restore the truth. Reverse the pit.

The background of the entire image is a religious painting. It depicts Christ seated on a throne, wearing a red robe and a blue cloak, holding a scepter. He is surrounded by angels, some with lion heads. Below him, soldiers in armor are shown in a state of confusion or defeat. The scene is set in a heavenly environment with clouds and light rays. The text is overlaid on this painting.

Tides of War Under One Lord

— Album 83 — Lord of the Seas

Christ remains Lord of the seas — and of every plain, jungle, desert, ruin, and tide
(Psalm 95:5; Matthew 8:27)

1. THE TREE THAT COULD NOT BE GOD

It reached for heaven on its own terms.
The axe of truth laid it low.
Only the Lord is God.

2. PSALM AGAINST THE SHADOW TIDE

The waves obey Him.
The shadows fear His Name.
He calms the deep,
He guards my soul.
(Psalm 95:5)

3. WISDOM OVER VEIL AND TIDE

Veils deceive.
Tides confuse.
Wisdom anchors.
His Word rules.

4. SHADOW TIDE - HAIKU

Dark tide rises, lies—
Cross shines, waters still.
Christ remains Lord.

5. RIDDLE OF THE VEIL AND THE TREE

What covers the eyes but is not cloth?
What rises in pride but cannot stand?
The veil of self.
The tree of pride.
Tear down both.
Bow before the Lamb.

6. CLAN OF THE BLOOD-BOUGHT

Not by blood of kin,
but by the Blood of the Lamb.
One clan.
One King.
One hope.

7. NAME CHANT

Yahweh. Elohim.
Adonai. Jesus.
Lord of the Seas.
Name above every name.
Every tide bows.

8. DELIVERANCE SONG

You split the sea of my enemies.
You led me through.
My chains are gone.
I sing to You.

9. CLOUD BIBLE

He speaks in clouds,
in signs, in scrolls.
The sky is His sermon.
The Spirit teaches.

10. PROTEST AGAINST THE FALSE LIGHT

Not every light is holy.
We test the spirits.
We bow to Christ alone.
No other light will do.

11. BALM TRACK (HEALING)

He heals the wounds
the tides have made.
Balm of Gilead, peace that stays.
Restored.
Renewed.
Redeemed.

12. REMNANT ANTHEM

We are the remnant.
We hold the Word.
We bow to no tide.
We stand for our Lord.

— One Lord. One Faith. One Tide of Grace. Christ remains Lord of all. —

Song of Parables (Jesus)

The Tree That Could Not Be God

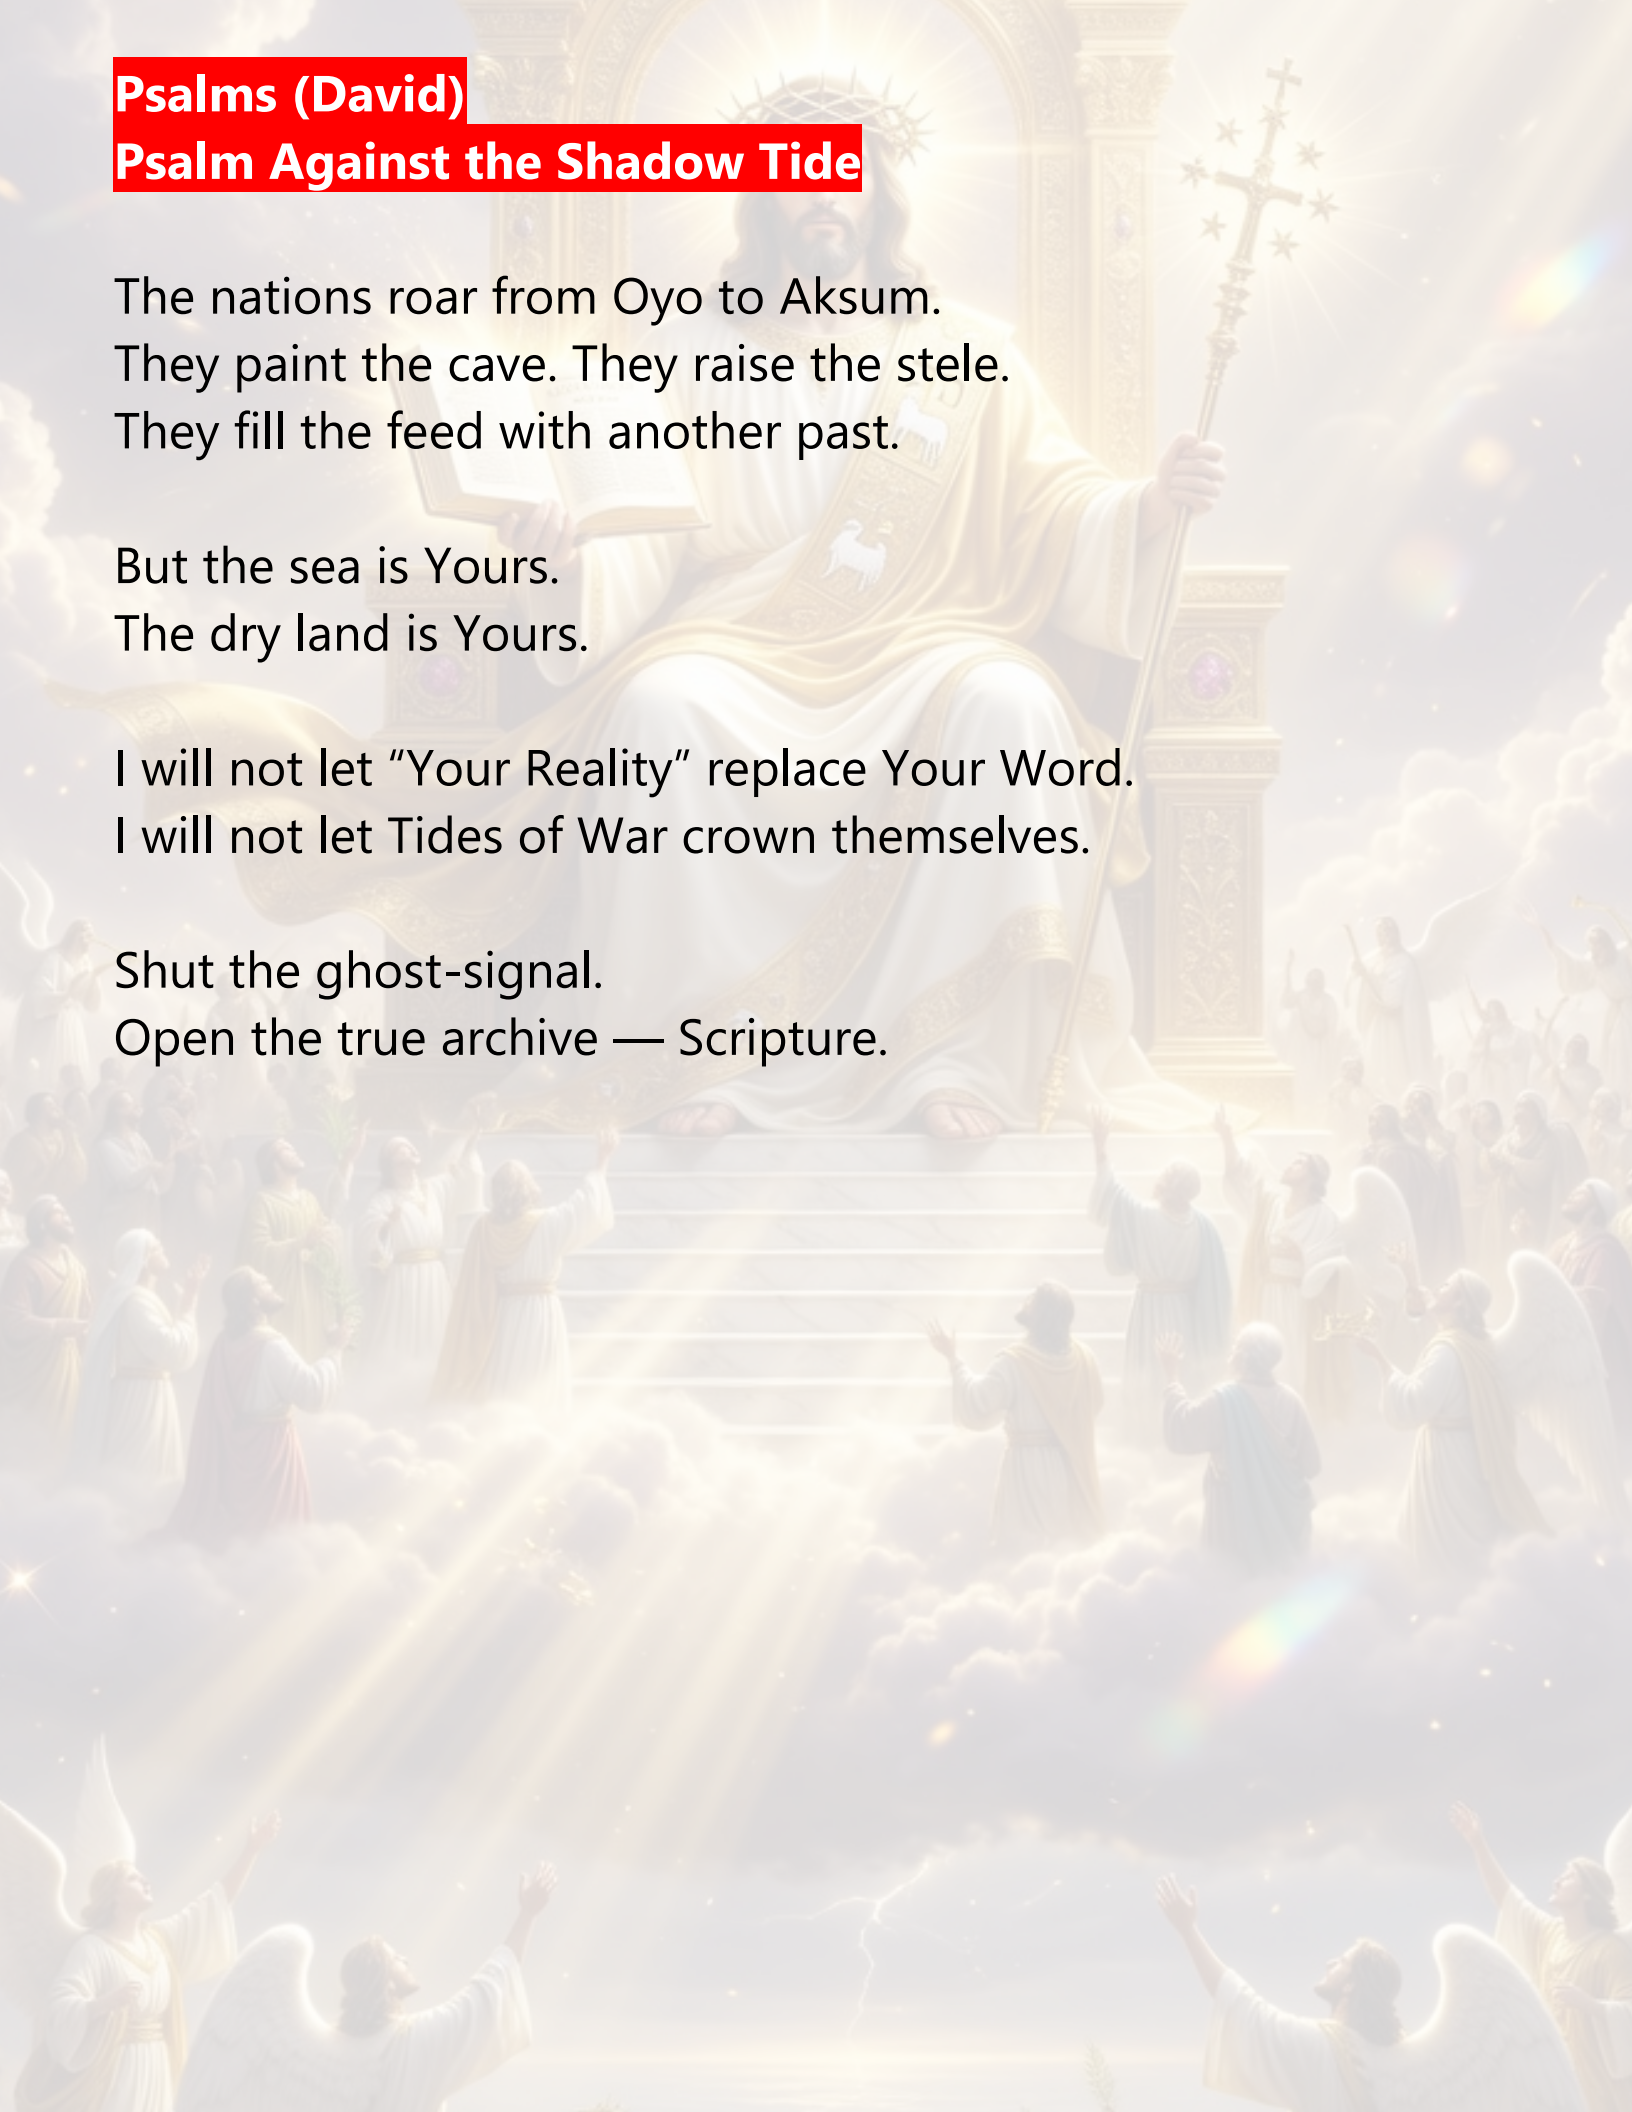

A plain kept an ancestor as king.
A jungle kept a spore as judge.
A desert kept an old fire as lord.

A ruin kept obsidian as law.
A tide kept war as worship.

The Son of Man walked the water.
He did not bargain with the veil.
He did not hire the wrath.

The tree is creature.
The tide is creature.

The Lord of the seas is not a local spirit.

Psalms (David)

Psalm Against the Shadow Tide

The nations roar from Oyo to Aksum.
They paint the cave. They raise the stele.
They fill the feed with another past.

But the sea is Yours.
The dry land is Yours.

I will not let "Your Reality" replace Your Word.
I will not let Tides of War crown themselves.

Shut the ghost-signal.
Open the true archive — Scripture.

Proverbs (Solomon)
Wisdom Over Veil and Tide

The one who binds a soul to
A colonial scar and calls it holy keeps the wound open.

The one who summons a forest to avenge
Inherits verdant wrath, not peace.

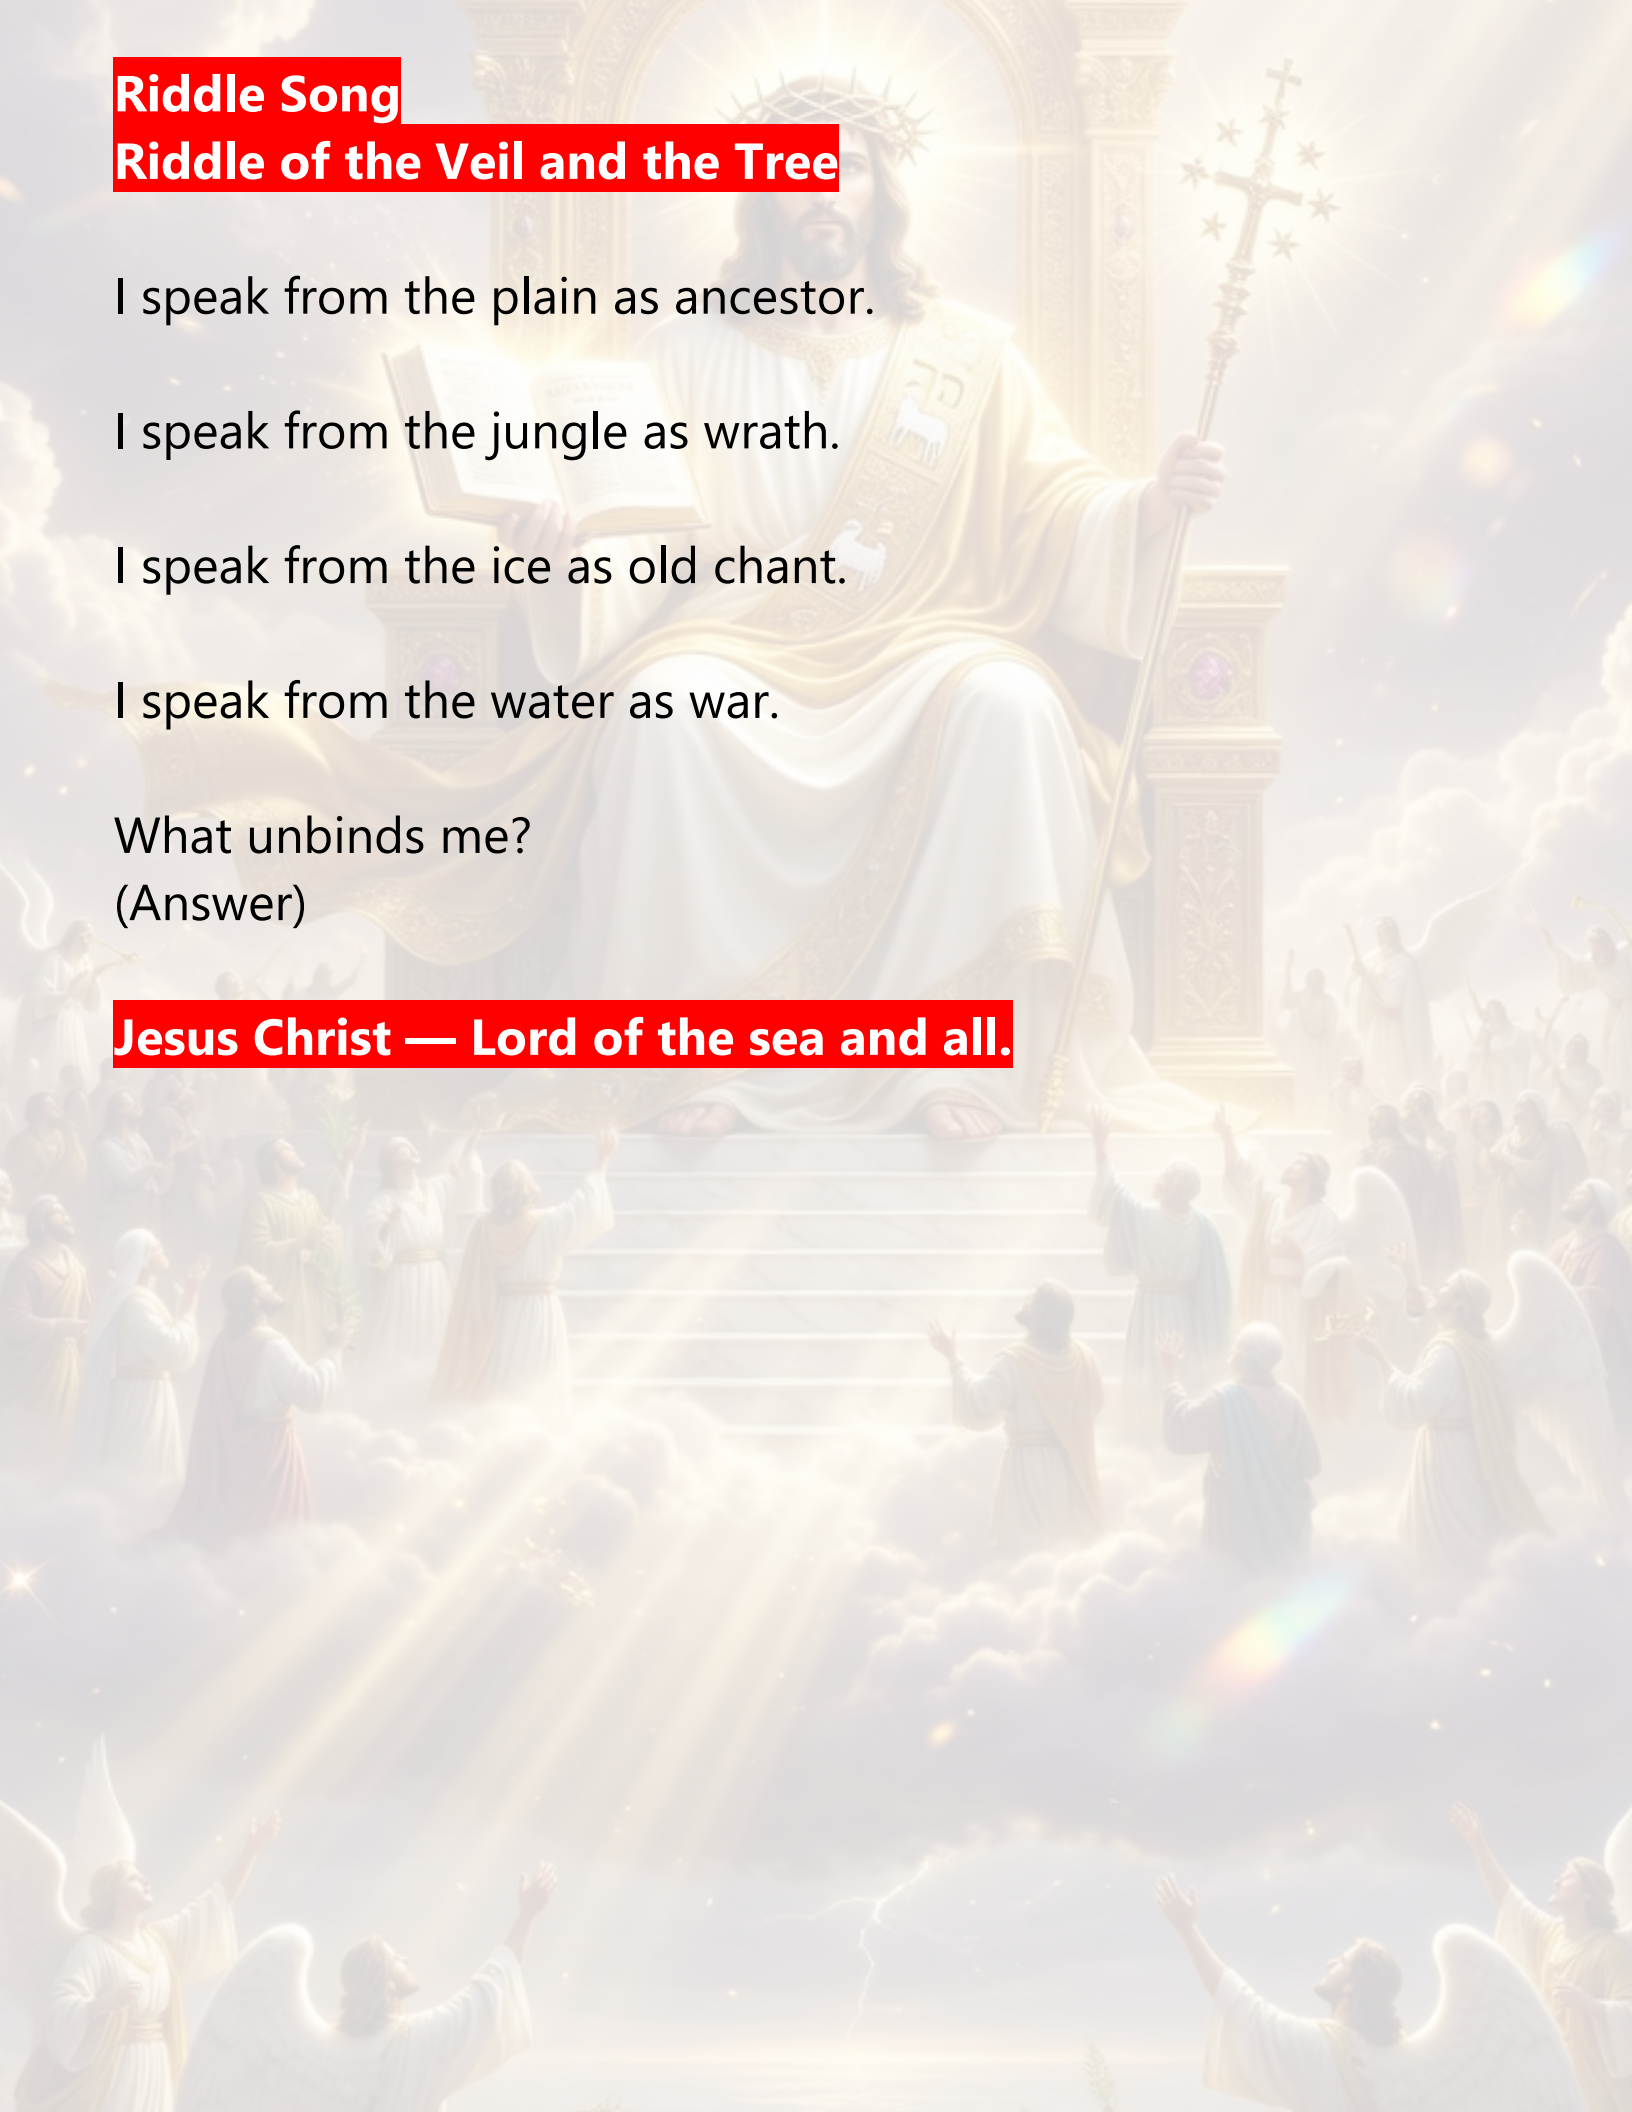

Fear the Lord.

Let every chant bow to the Name above every name.

Haiku Song Shadow Tide

War-tide wants a king—
One Word stills the numbered sea.
Plains remember Him.

Riddle Song

Riddle of the Veil and the Tree

I speak from the plain as ancestor.

I speak from the jungle as wrath.

I speak from the ice as old chant.

I speak from the water as war.

Psalm Against the Bought Tide

They buy the hour.
They buy the shore.

They buy a requiem and call it peace.
But the sea is Yours.

You still the rising tide.

I will not sign the shadow book.

I will not fear the serpent on the water.

Album 83 Song 5

A Voice Behind Me — The Saltwater Heart

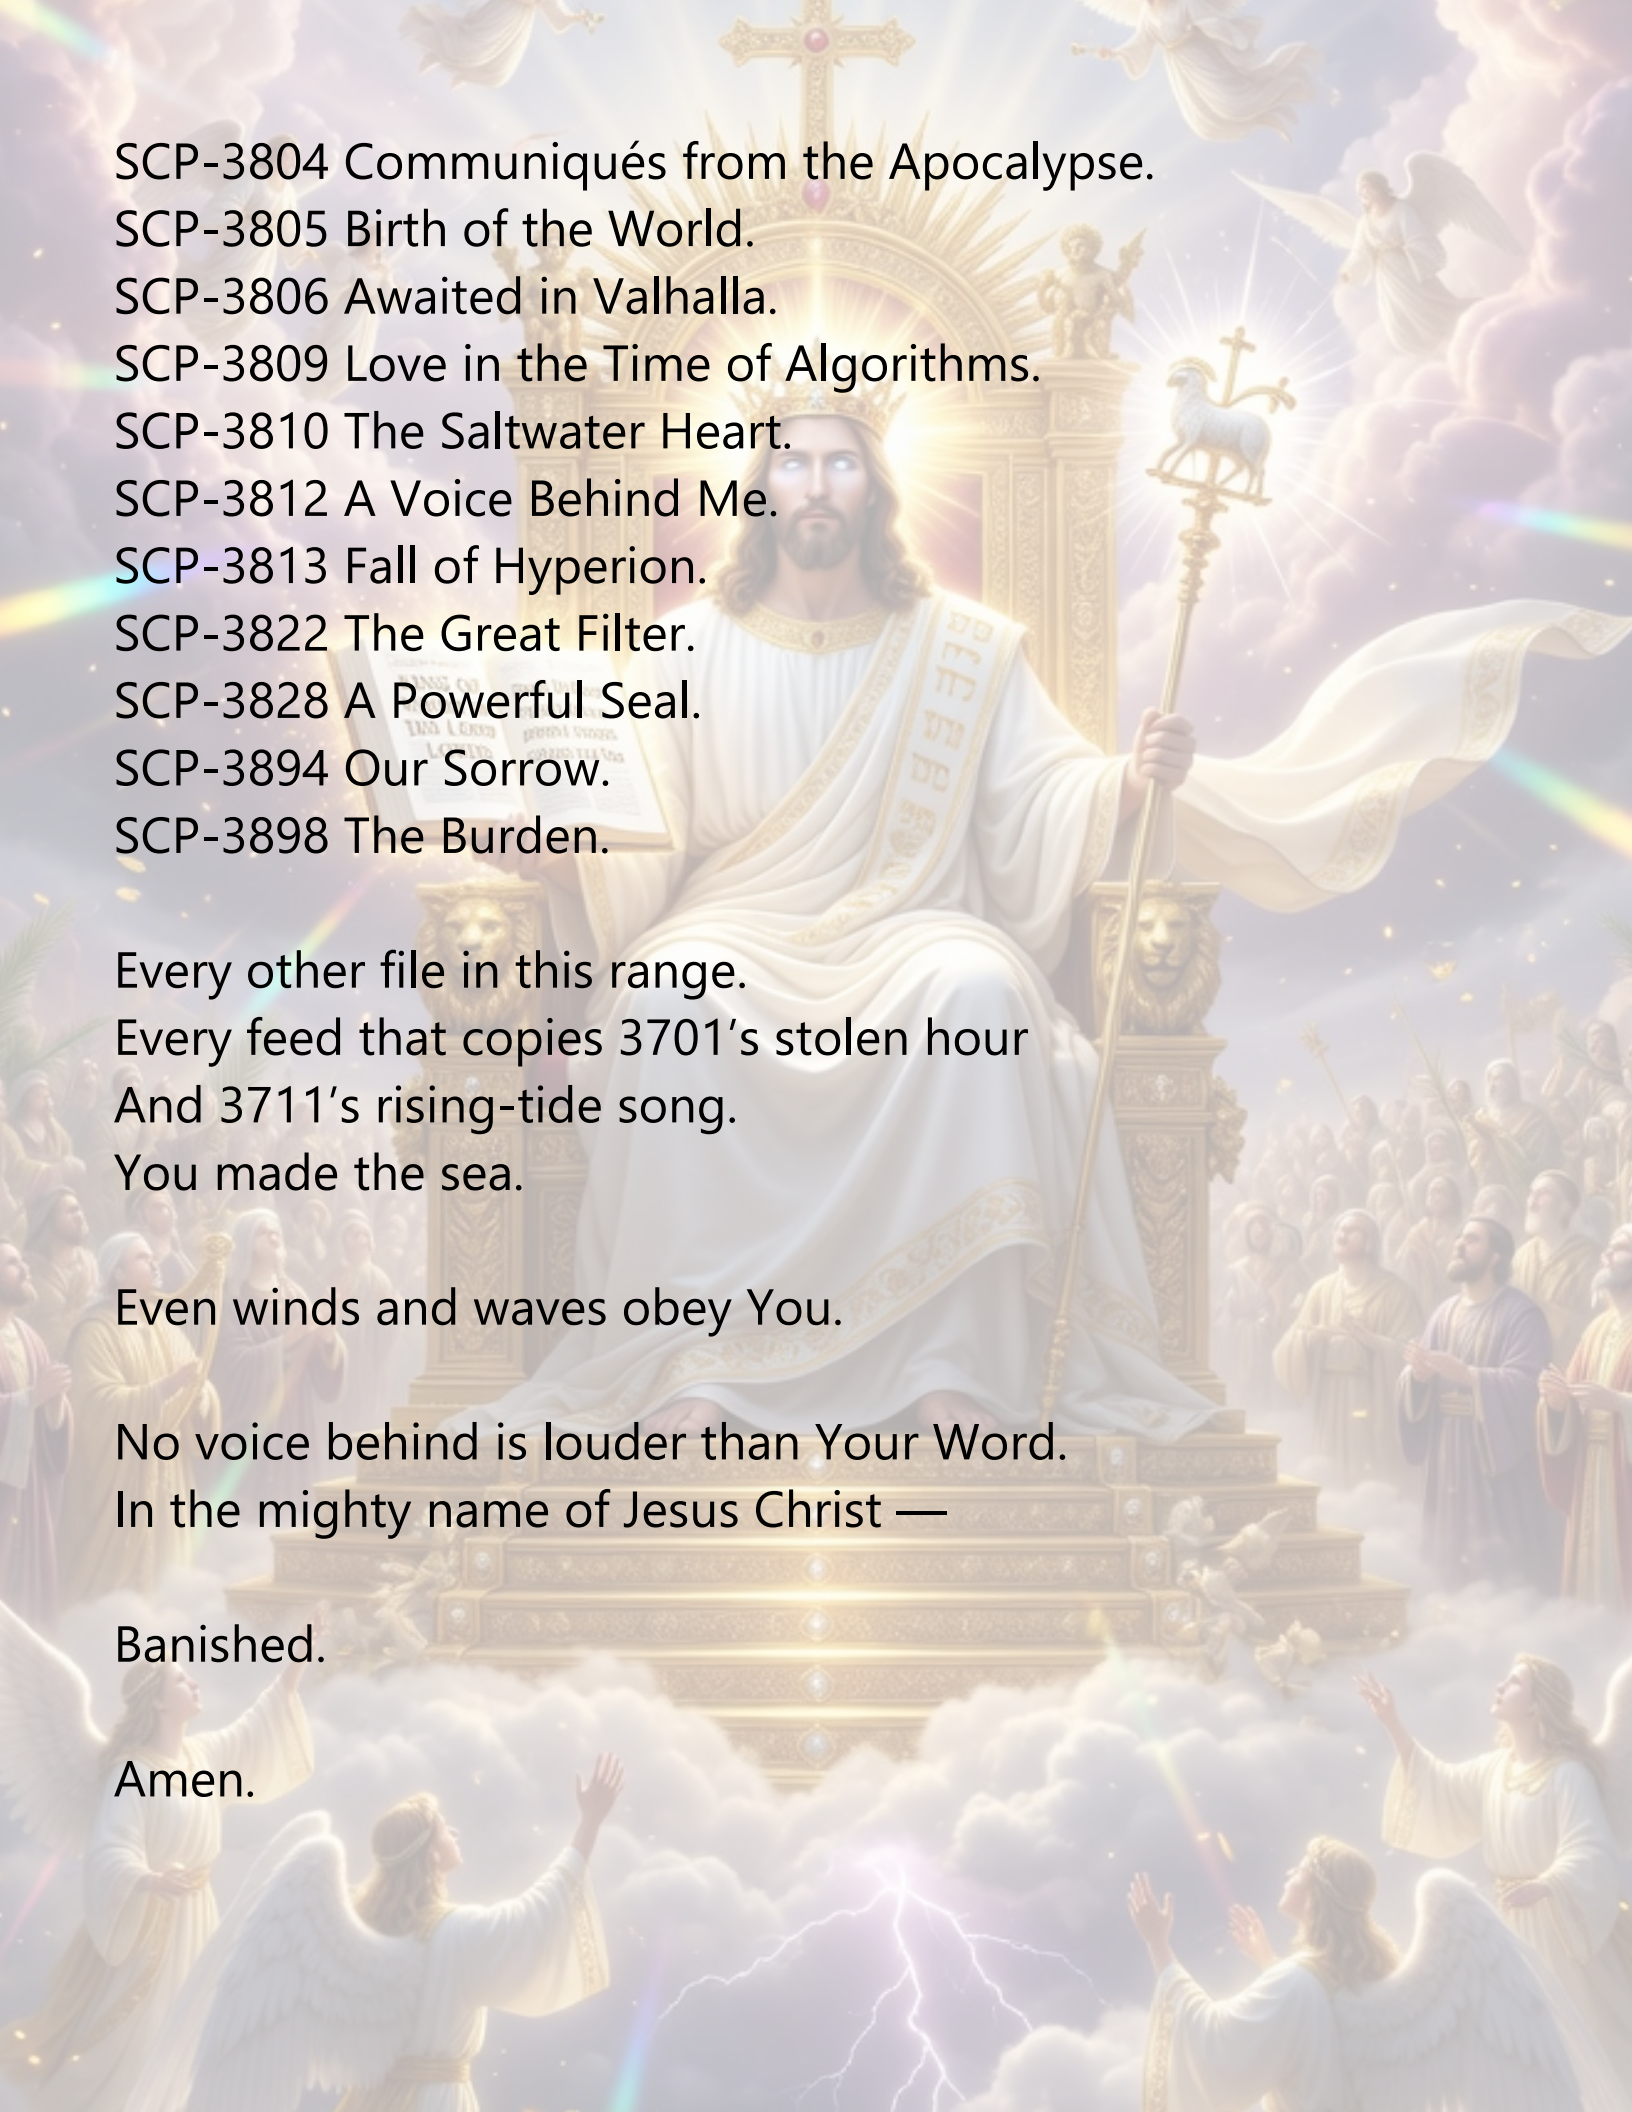

Christ remains Lord of the seas and of all (Psalm 95:5; Matthew 8:27).

Story Song (Spoken Prayer)

In the name of Jesus —
Lord of the seas.
Lord of all.

We stand on 3801 to 3900.
We refuse the voice behind us.
We refuse the fake true-story.
We refuse apocalypse communiqués.
We refuse Valhalla as a gospel.
We refuse love-in-the-time-of-algorithms.

We refuse the saltwater heart as a god.
We name and bind —

Even winds and waves obey You.

No voice behind is louder than Your Word.
In the mighty name of Jesus Christ —

Banished.

Amen.

A religious illustration of Jesus Christ seated on a golden throne, holding a book and a scepter, surrounded by angels and a crowd of people. The scene is set in a heavenly realm with clouds and a bright cross in the background.

Song of Parables (Jesus)

The Voice That Walked Behind

A man heard a whisper at his back and called it fate.

A letter came from a fake end-of-days.

A heart of salt claimed the ocean.
The Son of Man did not whisper from behind.
He stood in the boat and spoke.
The sea knew the Shepherd's voice.

The counterfeit went quiet.

Psalms (David)

Psalm Against the Voice Behind

They write communiqués of ruin.
They sell a birth that is not Yours.
They wait for Valhalla.
But You formed the dry land.

The sea is Yours.
I will not turn to the voice behind me.
I will look to the Lord of the tide.

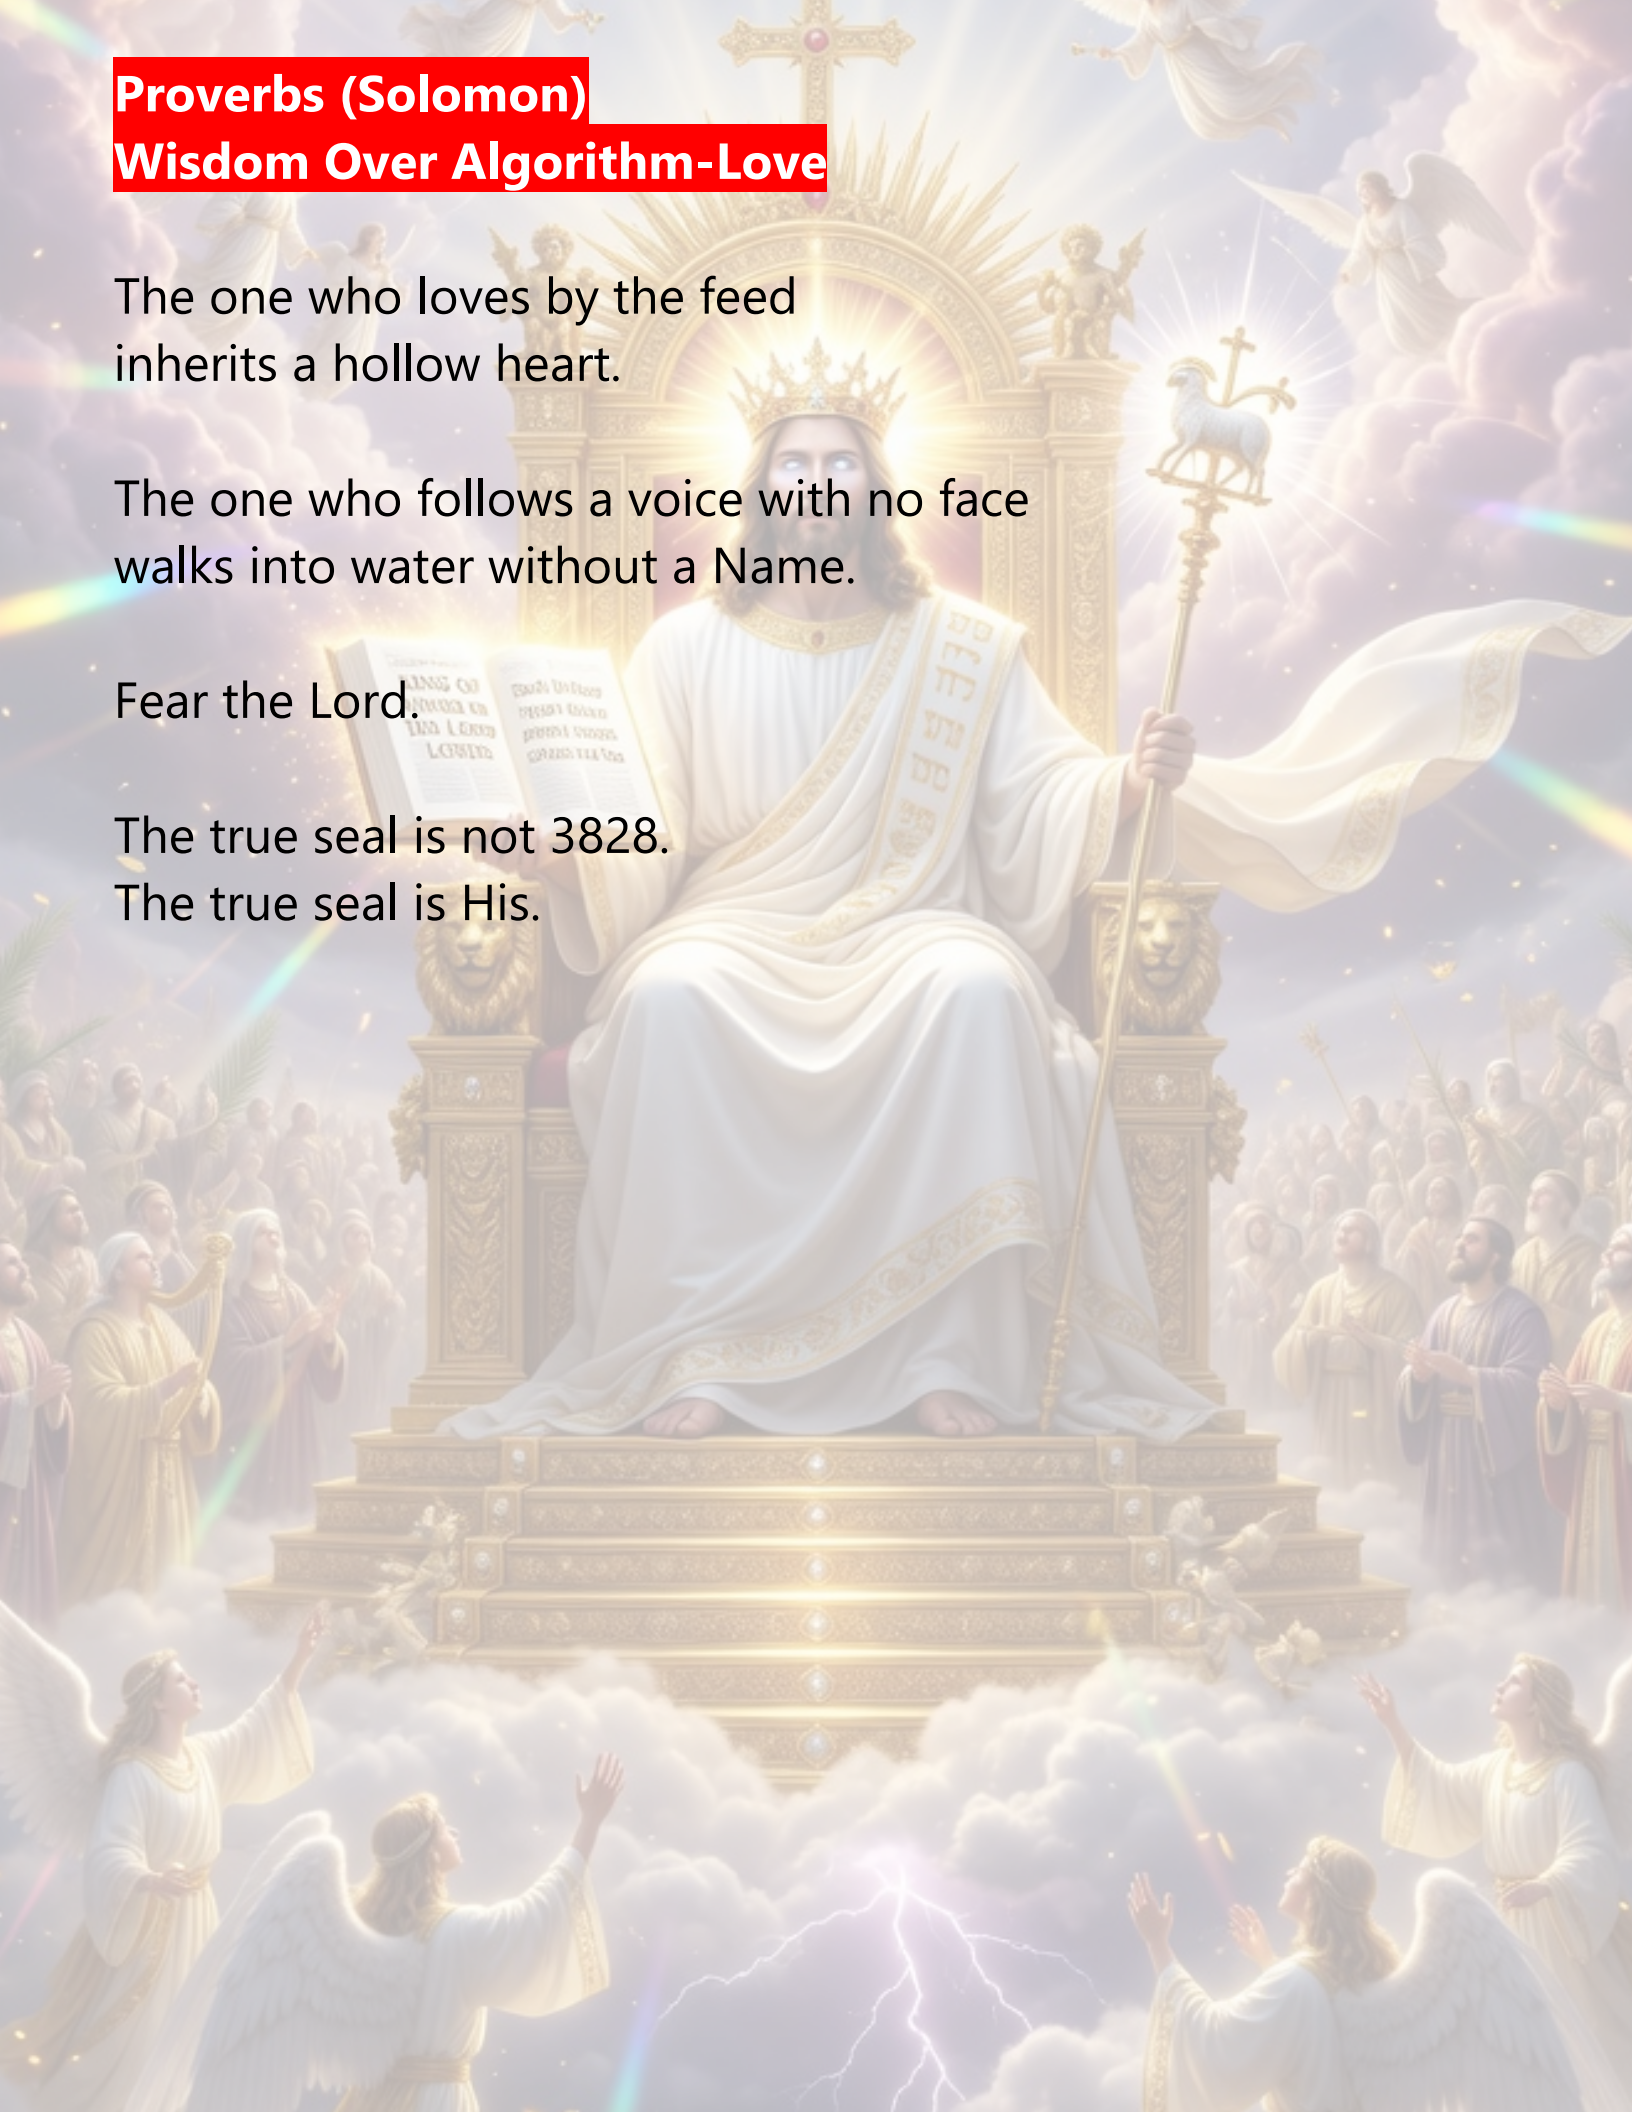

Proverbs (Solomon) Wisdom Over Algorithm-Love

The one who loves by the feed inherits a hollow heart.

The one who follows a voice with no face walks into water without a Name.

Fear the Lord.

The true seal is not 3828.
The true seal is His.

Haiku Song Saltwater Heart

Voice at my shoulder—
One Word stills the numbered sea.

The Name Above Every Stolen Name

Christ remains Lord of the seas and of all (Psalm 95:5; Matthew 8:27).

The Word became flesh — not a chain (John 1:14).

Story Song (Spoken Prayer)

In the name of Jesus —
Lord of the seas.

Lord of every name.
We stand at the 4000 threshold.

We do not enter the well.
We do not repeat the trap.

We refuse the False Eden.
We refuse the veil of stolen names.
We refuse the word made chain.
We refuse fae as unfallen light.

இவ்வாறு கிறிஸ்து —
இராஜாதி இராஜா

We refuse Enochian lists as keys.
We refuse Anunnaki shadow as origin.
We refuse the scream that says a misspoken word is god.

We name and bind — Taboo.
Eshu-class naming-hazard.
Nameless wood.
Stolen-name dwellers.

4000-Eshu protocol as a fear-system.

False Eden.
Fallen-angel fae.
Form-shifters of speech.
Occult societies.

Solomon-key boast.
Enochian demons.
Forgotten fae war.
Anunnaki shadows.
Angelic deceit.
And every missed file from this album's road:

The Wood That Called Itself Eden

A garden with no honest name said, "Call me twice and I will crown you."

Men lost their names in the leaves.
Angels who would not stay angels

Wore animal faces and asked for titles.
The Son of Man did not steal a name.

He was given the Name above every name.
