Story Song (Spoken Prayer)

In the name of Jesus —
Lord of the seas.

We stand on 2801 to 2900.

We refuse the trader's coin as a god.
We refuse the overseer's bell.
We refuse the captain's log as scripture.
We refuse Dutch exploitation and Babylonian bondage.

Ghost Ship, Trader's Coin, Overseer's Bell

We refuse the claim on the mind.

We refuse the ghost ship as a god.

We refuse the echo that steals yesterday.

We refuse doomsday as a gospel.

We refuse money as a king.

We name and bind —

Every other file in this range.

The sea is His.

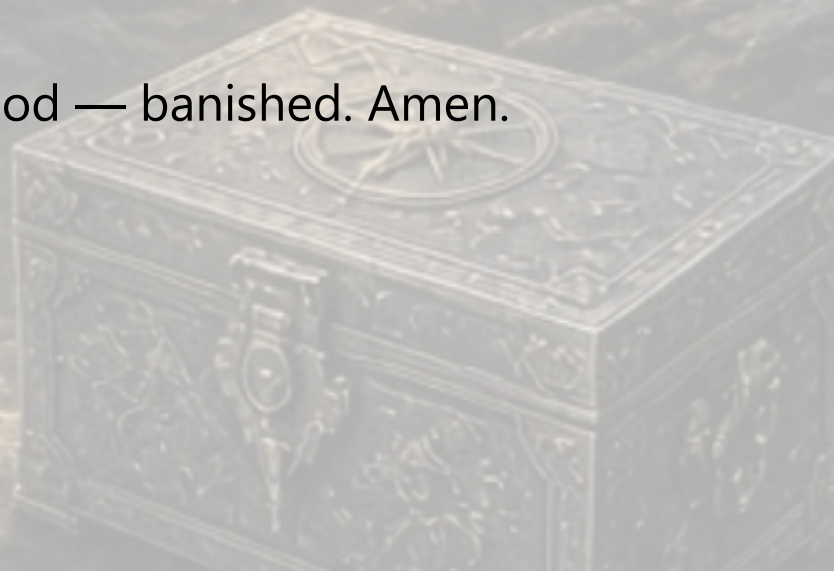

The mind is His.

The ship has no right to the harbour.

In the mighty name of Jesus Christ —

In the name of Jesus — Lord of the seas.

By the Sword of the Word of God — banished. Amen.

Song of Parables (Jesus)The Ship That Would Not DockOlder's Coin, Overseer's Bell

A crew sailed with no living captain.
They called the echo "home."
They sold ice as a kingdom.
They said the brains belong to the net.

The Son of Man stood on the water.
He did not board the Dutchman.
He spoke. The lane went still.
Memory returned to its Owner.

Psalms (David)

Psalms Against the Ghost Lane

They collect the mind like wreckage.
They pile the gyre with what will not sink.
They name a dark age and call it fate.

But You made the sea.
You keep my days.

I will not sail with the dead crew.
I will remember Your Word.

Proverbs (Solomon)

Ballad — The Archive That Could Not Keep the Lie

It bound South Africa's wound in a living shelf.

It sold the soul beside a lamp of no sun.

The Sword of Jesus turned the page.

The earth remembered its Maker.

Archivists and the Infinite Aisle

Red Reality,
Endless Aisle,
Reliquary of Lies

1. Story Song

Thin red mist, fading slow,
Cross of light calls the soul,
Stone rests. Grace knows.

2. Parables — The Aisle That Had No Exit

She walked. She turned.
She sought the end.
The aisle only folded within.

3. Psalms — Against the Tablet of Destinies

DESTINY
FIXED BY POWER

They carved fate in stone and called it truth.
You break the tablet;
You write in mercy.

4. Proverbs — Wisdom Over Aisle and Archive

Better a true line in the dust
than a thousand shelves bound in rust.

5. Haiku

Red mist thins at dawn.
Cross stands. Stone remains sealed.
Peace beyond the aisle.

6. Riddle

I have no door, yet I trap.
I have no price, yet I sell.
I have no truth, yet I archive.
What am I?
(The Infinite Aisle.)

7. Holy Jest

The aisle laughed,
"No one exits."
The fool bowed,
"After you."

8. Name-Chant

Jesus —
Lord of history.
Not Tiamat. Not Enlil.
Not the Reliquary.

9. Exit

Out of Red Reality.
Out of the aisle.
Out of the market.
Into the Name.

10. Protest

We protest colonial lies bound as archive.
We protest bots
that sow discord.

11. Watchman

I see the maze-story,
the 2008 echo,
the pulpit of zeal.
I do not buy.

12. Balm

For rewritten lands.
For thinned souls.
Restore the true record.

13. Travel

Poland-void to Gauteng stone to Antarctic boast —
His earth.

14. Anthem

True history stands.
Peace returns.
All glory to Jesus Christ.

15. Fist of the Word

The Sword strikes
the tablet-boast.
Aisle down. Void down.

16. Racing

Consumer-lap, no checkout.
Checkered Light:
the Door.

17. Ghazal

The red speaks unbeing;
I answer with a Name.
The aisle speaks more;
I answer with a Name.

18. Tribal

Yoruba Boer-scar Australian echo
Yoruba, Boer-scar,
British mist, Australian echo —
one Lamb. No Enlil-clan.

19. Cloud Bible

Mazesky is not Scripture.
The Word writes the day.

20. Game

Not the market's board.
History is not a DLC.
Truth on.

21. Ballad — The Archive That Could Not Keep the Lie

It bound the lie in shelves of stone,
It sealed it deep, it claimed its throne.
But light leaked through, the lie was shown —
The Archive That Could Not Keep the Lie.

There dreads
Thein Mest,
See te luet you
Fie sasher.
