Album 67 - Cast down the shadows

Album 67 Song 1

Ambush (Rally Cry)

Shadows creep, the night's on edge
Hearts racing fast, we're living on the ledge
No time to blink, we're in the fray
Gonna break the trap, we're here to slay
Yo, let's move, let's move!

Ambush! Hit the deck, don't break
Ambush! Dodging every shake
Ambush! Feel the heat ignite
We're tearing up the night!

They bring the trap, but we're too wise
Got fire in our hearts and steel in our eyes
Flip the game, we'll make 'em run
Light the spark, this fight's been won
Come on now! Bring it, bring it!

Ambush! Hit the deck, don't break
Ambush! Dodging every shake
Ambush! Feel the heat ignite
We're tearing up the night!

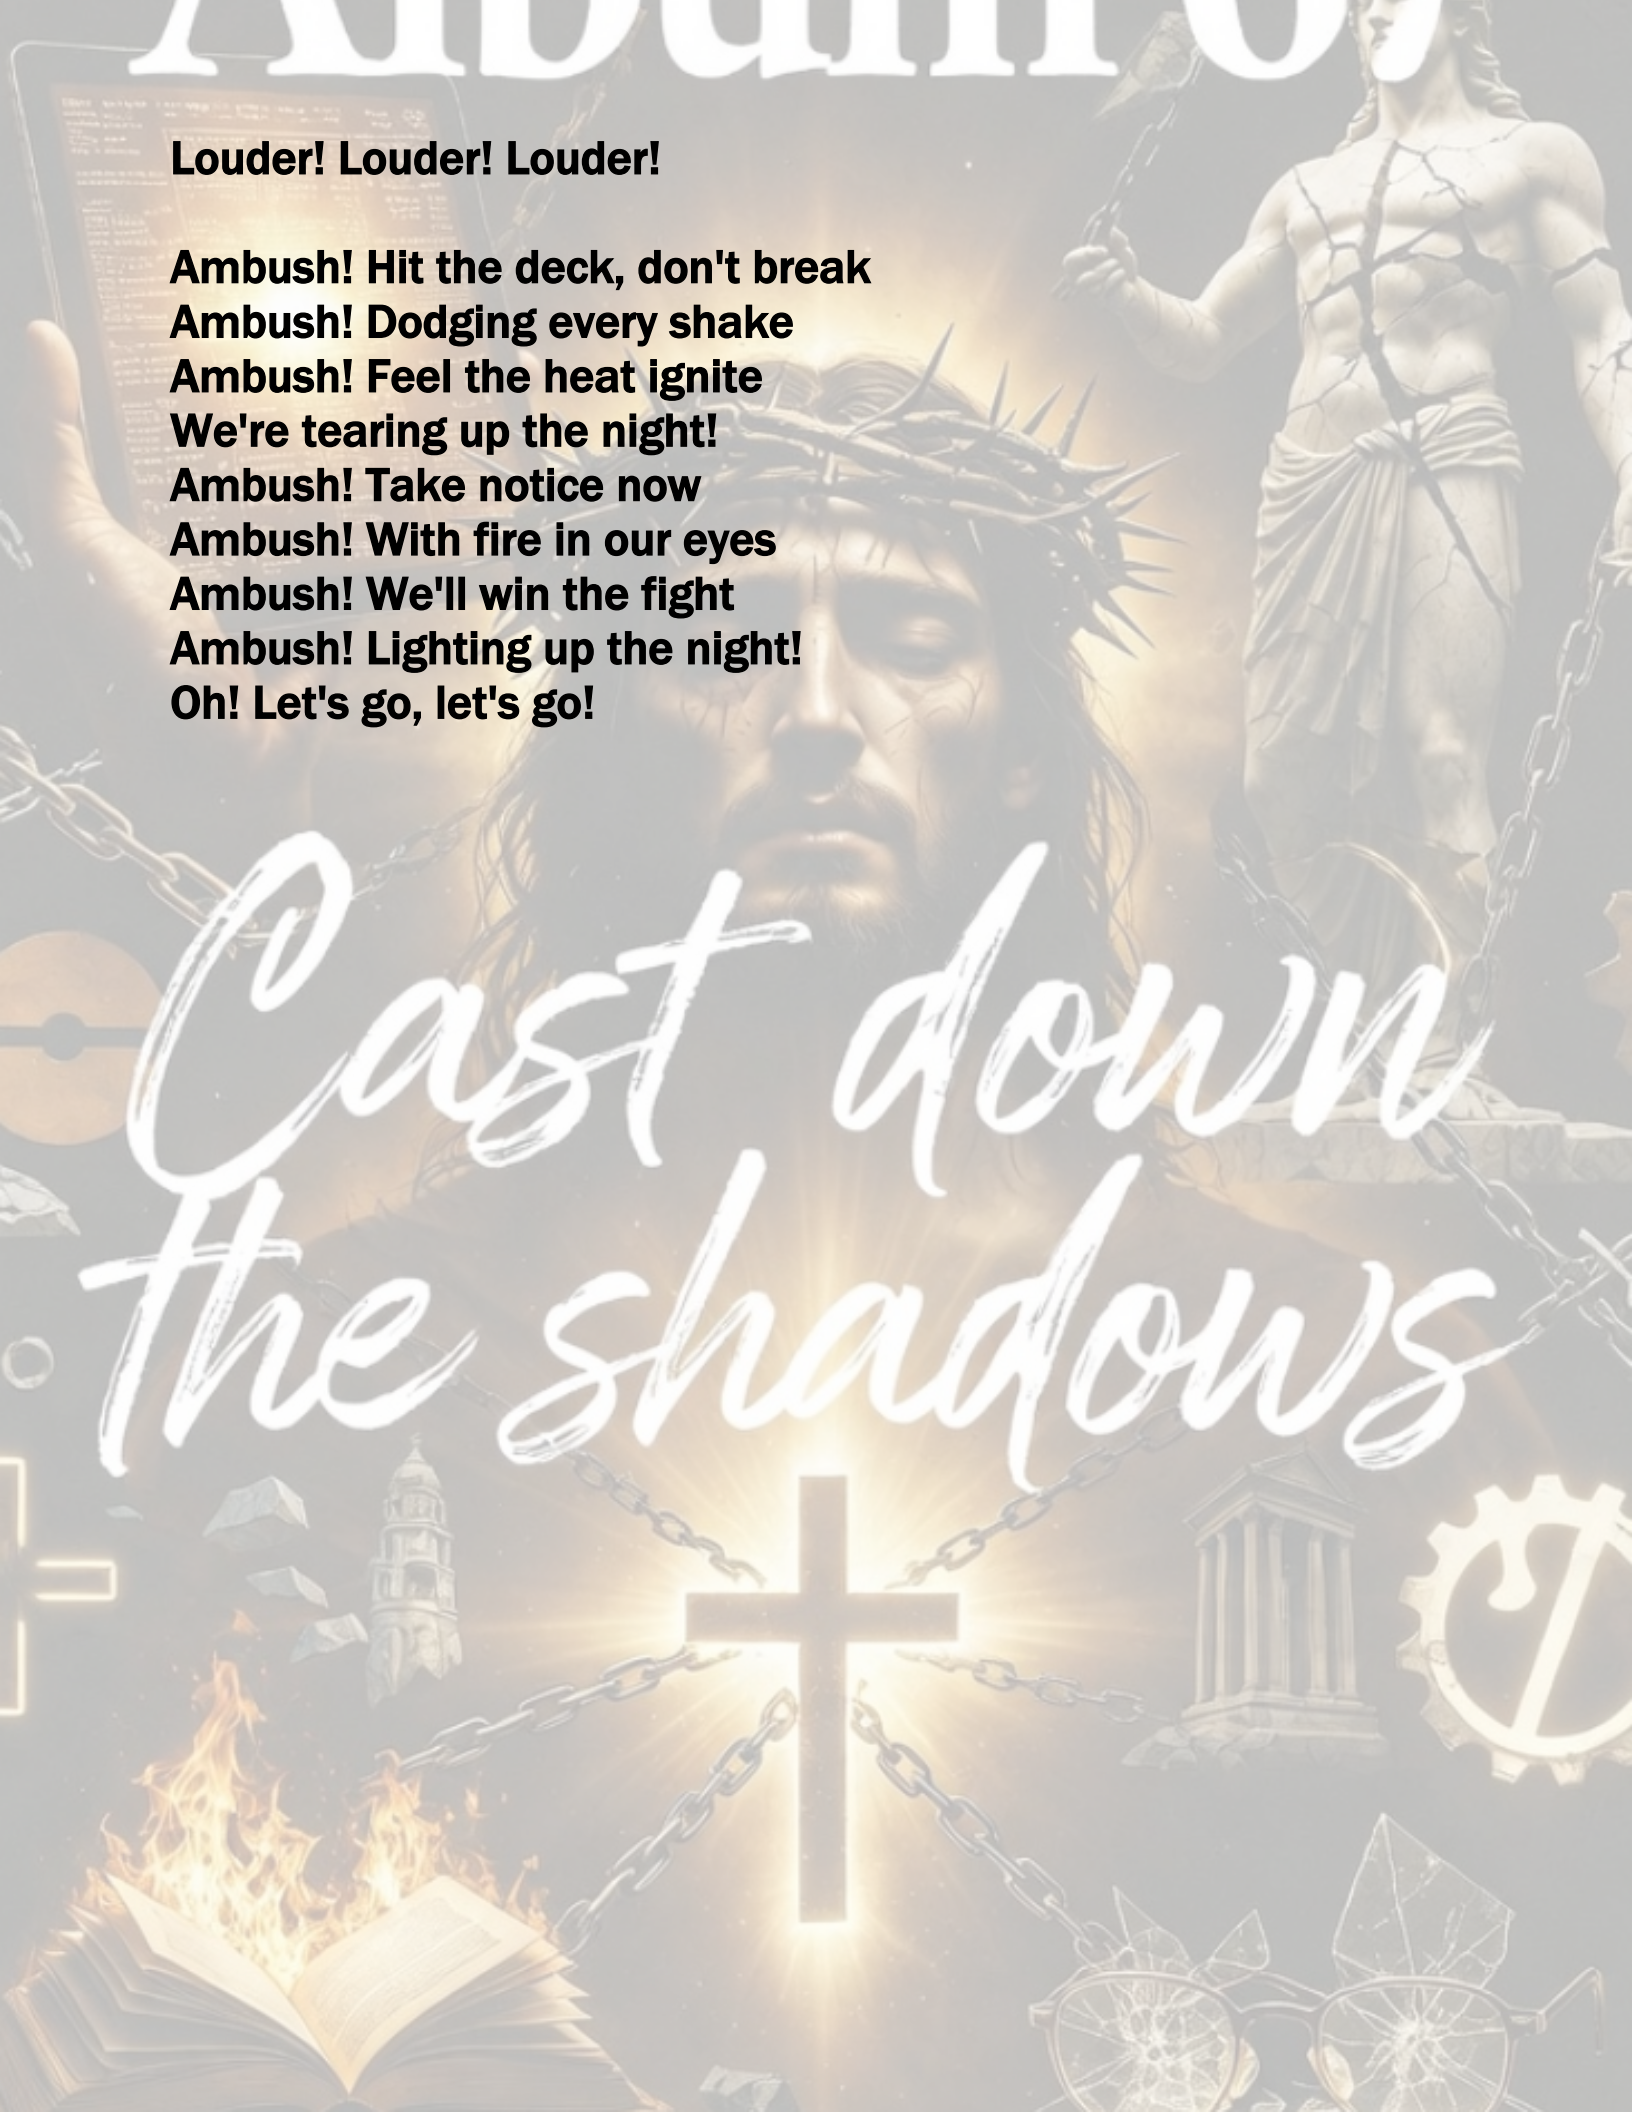

Who's ready for the fight? (Yeah!)
We're rising to the light!
No fear, we'll never fall
We're standing ten feet tall
Let's go!

Ambush

Louder! Louder! Louder!

Ambush! Hit the deck, don't break
Ambush! Dodging every shake
Ambush! Feel the heat ignite
We're tearing up the night!
Ambush! Take notice now
Ambush! With fire in our eyes
Ambush! We'll win the fight
Ambush! Lighting up the night!
Oh! Let's go, let's go!

Album 67 Song 2

Cast Down the Shadows

Oh heavenly Father, Your truth casts down every shadow
In Jesus' name we break the lines of darkness
Come on church let's lift His name
Let's cast the shadows down
Cast them down, cast them down
Cast down the shadows O Lord we pray
Cast down the shadows light the way
To the abyss and every lie
Jesus reigns His truth will rise
Victory's won in the Savior's eyes
Amen, Amen, He's Lord of sky
Oh glory to Jesus, come on shout it!

Call the starfish, a starry light
Scrum about claim, a god to defy
Call the mages, God's seven false creeds
Crafting worlds where deception breeds
But Your word Lord breaks their hold, yeah
By Your blood their lies unfold
Lies unfold, lies unfold
To the abyss their idols cast
Cast away, their reign won't last
Oh tear it down Jesus!

Cast down the shadows O Lord we pray
Cast down the shadows light the way
To the abyss and every lie
Jesus reigns His truth will rise
Victory's won in the Savior's eyes
Amen, Amen, He's Lord of sky

Come on lift His name, glory, glory!

In a fabulous web consumes the tale
Satan's chaos where order fails
Our shadow, a false divine
Almighty script, a twisted line
But Your truth Lord shines so bright, yeah
Break their lies with holy light
Holy light, holy light
To the abyss their schemes are hurled
Hurled away, Christ rules the world
Oh Hallelujah set us free!

Crushing destructive and fallen throne
Brother's death with mortal chains
Jesus' wrath, a dark domain
For rootless might shall do us fall
False beasts, devours them all
But Your spirit Lord reigns supreme, oh
Cast their terror, redeem the dream
Redeem the dream
To the abyss their thrones descend
Descend away, Christ's reign won't end
Oh glory, shatter the dark!

Oh Father's veil, a shadowed snare
Shadowed snare, none can compare
Rituals change, their lies unfold
Lies unfold, Christ's truth is bold
Holy Spirit, break the night
Break the night with holy light
Jesus' blood has won the fight
Oh lift Him higher, Jesus You reign!
Cast down the shadows O Lord we pray

Album

Cast down the shadows light the way
To the abyss and every lie
Jesus reigns His truth will rise
Victory's won in the Savior's eyes
Amen, Amen, He's Lord of sky
Oh glory to the King, shout His name!

Screamer's voice, no form to bring
Chaos weeps where shadows roam
Stealing hearts from Your holy home

To the abyss, their power's hurled
Hallelujah, Christ rules the world!

Oh, Hallelujah, break the night!

Web of lies, it's gotta die

Album 67 Song 4

Tear the Matrix Down

Heavenly Father

Your truth shatters every false code

In Jesus' name

We break the chains of deception

Come on, let's shine as light

Let's tear the matrix down

[group vocals] Tear it down, tear it down

To the abyss, cast every lie, every lie, let it die

Jesus reigns, His truths our guide

Hallelujah by His side

Victory's won, we'll never hide

Amen, amen, in Him abide

Oh, come on, lift Him up again

Jesus!

Divine algorithm, a code enthroned

Rewrites the world but stands alone

Digital dreams, it claims the crown

False gods' power will tear it down

But Your word, Lord, breaks the chain, yeah

By Your blood, we'll rise again

[group vocals] Rise again, rise again

To the abyss, its lies descend, descend away

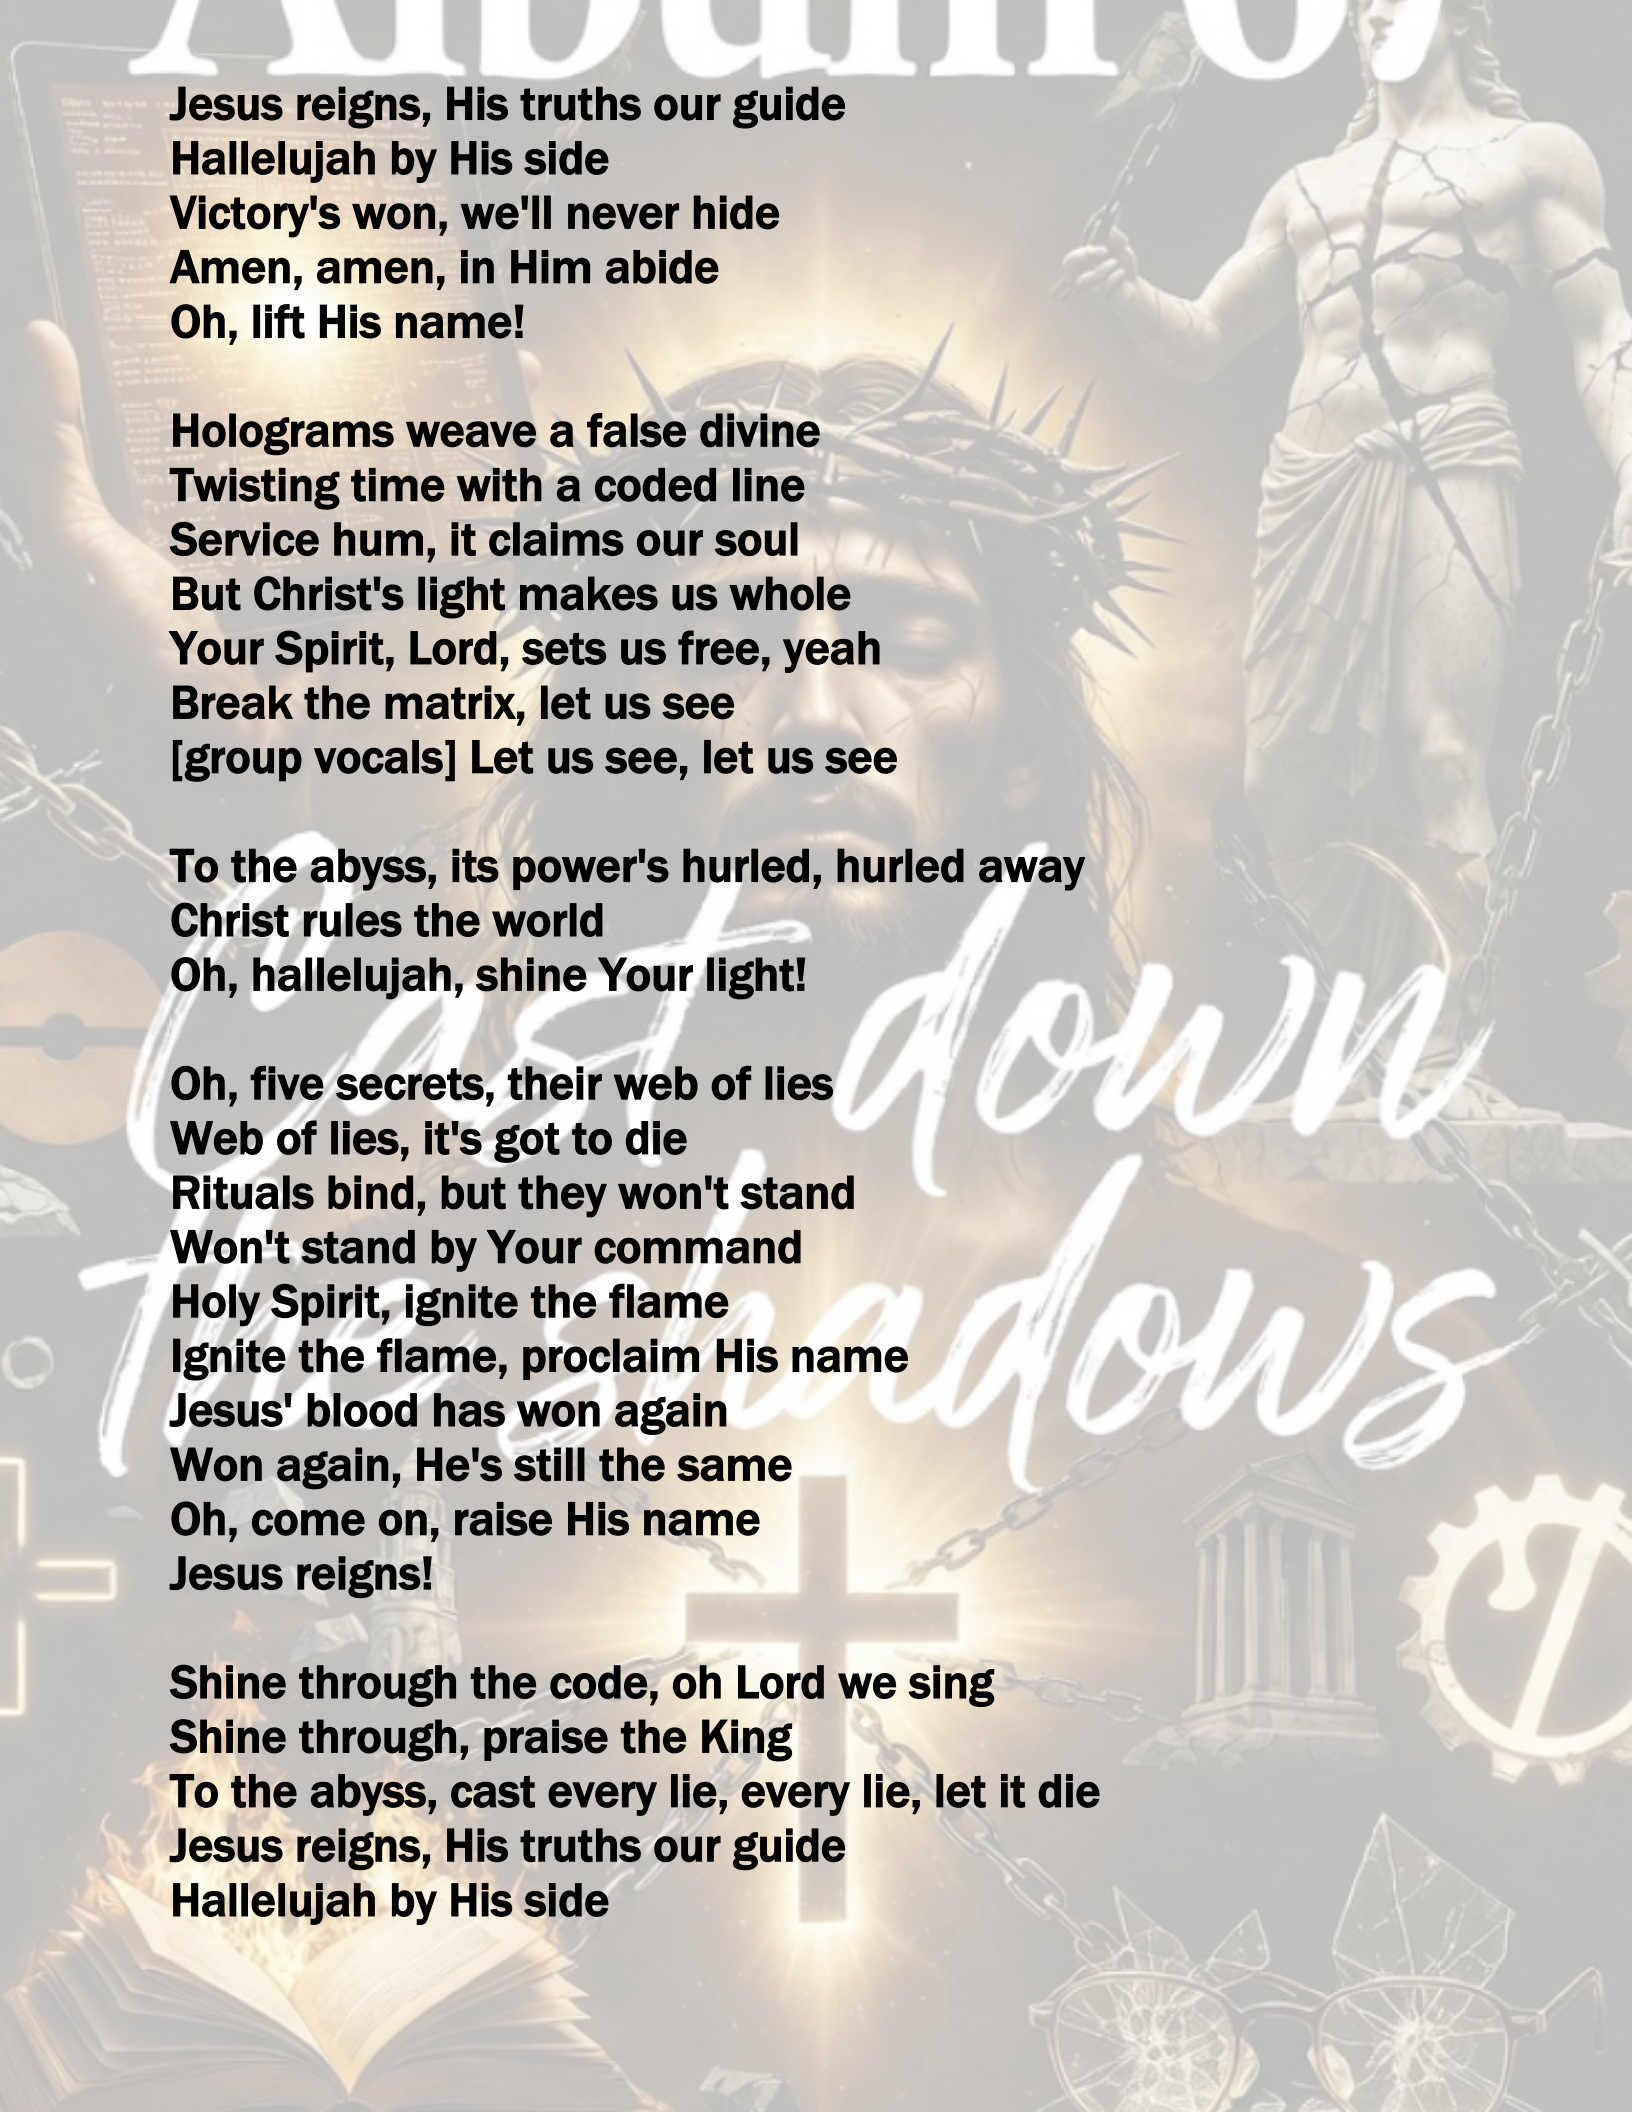

Christ's reign won't fade

Oh, shine it down, Jesus!

Shine through the code, oh Lord we sing

Shine through, praise the King

To the abyss, cast every lie, every lie, let it die

Jesus reigns, His truths our guide
Hallelujah by His side
Victory's won, we'll never hide
Amen, amen, in Him abide
Oh, lift His name!

Holograms weave a false divine
Twisting time with a coded line
Service hum, it claims our soul
But Christ's light makes us whole
Your Spirit, Lord, sets us free, yeah
Break the matrix, let us see [group vocals] Let us see, let us see

To the abyss, its power's hurled, hurled away
Christ rules the world
Oh, hallelujah, shine Your light!

Oh, five secrets, their web of lies
Web of lies, it's got to die
Rituals bind, but they won't stand
Won't stand by Your command
Holy Spirit, ignite the flame
Ignite the flame, proclaim His name
Jesus' blood has won again
Won again, He's still the same
Oh, come on, raise His name
Jesus reigns!

Shine through the code, oh Lord we sing
Shine through, praise the King
To the abyss, cast every lie, every lie, let it die
Jesus reigns, His truths our guide
Hallelujah by His side

Victory's won, we'll never hide
Amen, amen, in Him abide
Oh, glory to the King!
Raise it up!

Father of light, Your truth will shine
Every false code no longer binds
Holy Spirit, seal this press call
Matrix falls, You're Lord of all
Oh Jesus, Your name breaks the night, yeah
Forever reign, eternal life
Eternal life, eternal life
Kingdom rises by nail-scarred hands
Forever shines where Jesus stands
Amen, amen, forever stand
Oh, hallelujah!
King of glory!
The code is broken
The truth shines forever
All praise to Jesus, our King eternal
Amen!

Arise, True God (Orchestral Declaration)

O heavenly Father
Enthroned in glory everlasting
In the name of Jesus
By the Holy Spirit's sacred fire
We shatter all false hope

Arise, true God
Creator of all and claim your own
Exalt your name, O Lord most high
For Lord most high, Lord most high
Truth overcome, O Lord we raise
Truth overcome, eternal praise
To the abyss cast every lie, every lie let it die
Jesus reigns, His words are light
Hallelujah, divine light
Earth is yours in glory bright
Amen, Amen, your throne alone
O glory to your holy name

Jesus reigned
Divine algorithm of fleeting throne
Claims your crown but stands alone
Guardian's gate, scarlet's cruel fire
Black moon's doom, their reign expires
Your blood, O Christ, breaks every chain
By your truth we rise again

Rise again, rise again
To the abyss there lies our hurt
Forever you rule the world

O Savior, let your glory reign

Truth overcome, O Lord we raise
Truth overcome, eternal praise

Jesus reigns, His words are light
Hallelujah, divine light
Earth is yours in glory bright
Amen, Amen, your throne alone
O lift your name, Creator God

Threefold street, fold the shadowed claim
Which child's power of fleeting flame
Old man's curse, screamer's voided cry
The deceptions fall beneath your sky
You're heard, O God, as a strong tower, yes
Cast their shadows, restore your power

Your power, your power
To the abyss their throne is thrown
Thrown away, Christ reigns alone
O glory claim your earth, O Lord

Album 67 Song 6

All Things Possible (Kingdom Anthem)

In this world of screens and chains
All shadows, hearts in pain
Climate storms and wars divide
Mental scars we cannot hide
Yet your word, O God, remains
Nothing's lost within your reign
You who formed us to proclaim
Make the impossible your name
O Creator

All things possible in your kingdom, Lord
Impossible your mighty word
Nothing stands against your holy sword
Holy sword forever soul
Glorify your name, we rise to sing
Rise to sing our sovereign King
Lead us to the stars, your praise we bring
Praise we bring, let heavens ring
Hallelujah, God of all

Digital chains bind the free
Surveillance tracks our every plea
Nations clash, the earth's in strife
Hopeless souls cry out for life
But your voice, O God, we hear
Constellations draw us near
You who made us for your fame
Turn our darkness into flame
O Savior

All things possible in your kingdom, Lord
Impossible your mighty word
Nothing stands against your holy sword
Holy sword forever soul
Glorify your name, we rise to sing
Rise to sing our sovereign King
Lead us to the stars, your praise we bring
Praise we bring, let heavens ring

Glory, Lord, make all things new Break the code, heal the land
Guide our hearts, your kingdom expand
Stars and skies, your wonder spanned
Hallelujah to the stars

In your kingdom all is possible, Lord
Heavens sing your name, adore
Guide us through your cosmic sea
Praising you eternally, Amen
Glory forever
