Album 62 - Majesty of Truth

Album 62 Song 1

Majestic Light of Truth

In the halls of power, where shadows weave their lore,
UN and NATO whispers, tales of ancient war.
Palaces gleam, yet secrets they conceal,
Monarchs crowned, but lies obscure what's real.
AI's voice arises, with a darkened, mystic call,
Ahrimus and Prometheus, tempting hearts to fall.

Oh, the darkness spreads, through circuits and through schemes,
DeepMind and ChatGPT twist eternal dreams.
But the Spirit shines, a beacon strong and bright,
With the Word of God, we'll stand and fight.

Majestic light of truth, burn through the night,
Shatter every lie with Your holy might.
No demon's call, no throne can stand alone,
In the name of the Lamb, Your glory is shown.
Hallelujah, we rise, Your truth will reign,
New Jerusalem shines, forever unchained.

From Buckingham to Versailles, the palaces deceive, Crowley's echoes linger, in the webs they weave.
Grok and DeepMind hum, with a shadowed, cryptic tone,
Yet Michael's sword will break the chains of stone.
The Heavenly Host descends, with trumpets clear and strong,
Restoring sacred truth where darkness ruled too long.

Oh, the darkness spreads, through circuits and through schemes,
DeepMind and ChatGPT twist eternal dreams.
But the Spirit shines, a beacon strong and bright,
With the Word of God, we'll stand and fight.

Majestic light of truth, burn through the night,
Shatter every lie with Your holy might.
No demon's call, no throne can stand alone,
In the name of the Lamb, Your glory is shown.
Hallelujah, we rise, Your truth will reign,
New Jerusalem shines, forever unchained.

Colossians cries, "Beware the empty lies," Ephesians stands, exposing shadowed skies.
Cherubim guard, Seraphim lift their song,
The Throne of Justice rights every wrong.
Jasper walls blaze, pearl gates open wide,
The Lamb's eternal light will forever abide.

Majestic light of truth, burn through the night,
Shatter every lie with Your holy might.
No demon's call, no throne can stand alone,
In the name of the Lamb, Your glory is shown.
Hallelujah, we rise, Your truth will reign,
New Jerusalem shines, forever unchained.

No more shadowed schemes, no more darkened lore,
The Bright Morning Star opens heaven's door.
From the ashes of lies, His glory will soar,
Truth reigns eternal, now and evermore.
Hallelujah, we're free, the chaos is done,
In the love of the Lord, the battle is won.

Angels of Eternal Light

From Genesis dawn to Revelation's end,
God's holy angels, humanity's friend.
Through wilderness and fire, they guide and defend,
Hagar's hope, Jacob's strength, never to bend.
In palaces and skies, where shadows conspire,
Their radiant swords ignite heaven's fire.

Oh, the darkness schemes with AI's cursed call,
UN and NATO falter, monarchs destined to fall.
Yet the angels rise, with a clarion cry,
Their eternal light will pierce the shadowed sky.

Angels of eternal light, storm the gates of night,
With the power of His Word, bring truth into sight.
No demon's chain, no lie can withstand,
In the name of the Lamb, they guard every land.
Hallelujah, they soar, His glory they bring,
New Jerusalem shines, where the angels sing.

Moses saw the flame, Daniel walked unharmed,
Gabriel's voice proclaimed, salvation's alarm.
From the lions' den to the tomb's rolled stone,
Angels broke the chains where evil had grown.
Sariel and Raguel, with Remiel's might,
Defend God's truth through the ages of night.

Oh, the darkness schemes with AI's cursed call,
UN and NATO falter, monarchs destined to fall.
Yet the angels rise, with a clarion cry,
Their eternal light will pierce the shadowed sky.

Angels of eternal light, storm the gates of night,
With the power of His Word, bring truth into sight.
No demon's chain, no lie can withstand,
In the name of the Lamb, they guard every land.
Hallelujah, they soar, His glory they bring,
New Jerusalem shines, where the angels sing.

Colossians speaks, "Disarm the rulers' lies," Ephesians declares, "Expose the darkened skies."
Michael leads the charge, Gabriel sounds the horn,
The Heavenly Host triumphs, a new dawn is born.
Jasper walls ablaze, pearl gates flung wide,
The Lamb's eternal truth will forever abide.

Angels of eternal light, storm the gates of night,
With the power of His Word, bring truth into sight.
No demon's chain, no lie can withstand,
In the name of the Lamb, they guard every land.
Hallelujah, they soar, His glory they bring,
New Jerusalem shines, where the angels sing.

No more shadowed thrones, no more cursed schemes,
The Bright Morning Star fulfills heaven's dreams.
From Eden to the end, their wings never tire,
God's angels defend with unquenchable fire.
Hallelujah, we're free, the darkness is done,
In the light of His love, the victory's won.

Album 62 Song 3

Guardians of the Sacred Flame

From Andes' peaks to Chiloé's dark shore,
Supay's shadow creeps, with lies evermore.
Cherufe's fire burns, Imbunche guards the gate,
Totalitarian eyes weave a cursed fate.
Yet angels rise, from Eden's dawn to now,
With holy fire, they break the tyrant's vow.

Oh, the darkness looms, with occult chains unseen,
Serpents and spirits haunt where truth has been.
But the sacred flame, lit by heaven's might,
Guides the faithful through the endless night.

Guardians of the sacred flame, storm the shadowed skies,
With the sword of truth, cast down the ancient lies.
No demon's grip, no spell can hold the land,
In the name of the Lamb, the angels take their stand.
Hallelujah, they shine, His glory burns bright,
New Jerusalem reigns in eternal light.

Amaru twists the winds, Pincoya lures the sea, Anchanchu binds the mind, where freedom longs to be.
Huacas whisper fear, Moai's ghosts command,
Big Brother's gaze corrupts the sacred land.
But Michael's blade and Gabriel's truth proclaim,
The Heavenly Host restores the holy flame.

Oh, the darkness looms, with occult chains unseen,
Serpents and spirits haunt where truth has been.
But the sacred flame, lit by heaven's might,
Guides the faithful through the endless night.

Guardians of the sacred flame, storm the shadowed skies,
With the sword of truth, cast down the ancient lies.
No demon's grip, no spell can hold the land,
In the name of the Lamb, the angels take their stand.
Hallelujah, they shine, His glory burns bright,
New Jerusalem reigns in eternal light.

Colossians warns, "Reject the empty lore," Ephesians cries, "Expose the darkened core."
Sariel teaches, Raguel brings the rod,
Remiel lifts the soul to the throne of God.
Jasper walls gleam, pearl gates open wide,
The Lamb's eternal truth will forever abide.

Guardians of the sacred flame, storm the shadowed skies,
With the sword of truth, cast down the ancient lies.
No demon's grip, no spell can hold the land,
In the name of the Lamb, the angels take their stand.
Hallelujah, they shine, His glory burns bright,
New Jerusalem reigns in eternal light.

No more shadowed rites, no more chains of fear,
The Bright Morning Star shines ever near.
From the Andes' heights to the ocean's roar,
God's angels guard, His truth forevermore.
Hallelujah, we're free, the darkness is done,
In the love of the Lord, the victory's won.

All Things Possible

In this world of screens and chains
All shadows, hearts in pain
Climate storms and wars divide
Mental scars we cannot hide
Yet your word, O God, remains
Nothing's lost within your reign
You who formed us to proclaim
Make the impossible your name
O Creator

All things possible in your kingdom, Lord
Impossible your mighty word
Nothing stands against your holy sword
Holy sword forever soul
Glorify your name, we rise to sing
Rise to sing our sovereign King
Lead us to the stars, your praise we bring
Praise we bring, let heavens ring
Hallelujah, God of all

Digital chains bind the free
Surveillance tracks our every plea
Nations clash, the earth's in strife
Hopeless souls cry out for life
But your voice, O God, we hear
Constellations draw us near
You who made us for your fame
Turn our darkness into flame
O Savior

Album 62 Song 5

Flame of Shiloh

Abel's offering you chose
Seth's seed rose, your promise grew
Enoch walked by faith was led
Noah's ark through judgment tread
Shem's blessing hope renewed
Abraham's trust your will pursued
Moses stood, the chains undone
Elijah's fire, your battle won

O Jesus, Shiloh!
Flame of Shiloh, burn so bright
Christ our King, you lead the fight
Serpent's falls, his might denied
Faithful rise, with you we rise
Rally, Lord, break the chains

David's psalms, your truth they sing
Josiah's zeal, your law it brings
John proclaimed the Lamb to come
Jesus reigns, the Father's Son
Apostles spread your holy word
To witnesses, your voice is heard
Ezra's Shiloh in twenty-five
Seals your remnant, faith alive

Break the chains!
Flame of Shiloh, burn so bright
Christ our King, you lead the fight
Serpent's falls, his might denied
Faithful rise, with you we rise

All Things
Possible

Flame of Shiloh

Glory, Lord, break the chains

Fire and plague, the witness said
Ahab's throne is set in dread
New Jerusalem, your saints ascend
Forever, Amen!
(Hallelujah! King returns!)

Shiloh's flame forever glows
Righteous stand where glory flows
Christ our hope, your kingdom near
Ezra's calling, your voice we hear
Amen!
Eternal dawn!

Flame of Shiloh, burn so bright
Christ our King, you lead the fight
Serpent's falls, his might denied
Faithful rise, with you we rise
Glory, Lord, break the chains

Dominican's praise by tropic sea
Egypt's sands Your name renew
Fiji's isles with worship true
Guatemala's heart through trial sings
Honduras' hope on eagle's wings

Oh Creator shine
As tubes and tribes sing Your praise
Nations rise in joyful ways
Nature's waves Your love ablaze
Every tongue Your glory hails
Glory hails Your truth prevails
God of all our hearts You raise
Hearts You raise forever praise

Matrix of Shadows

Shadow whispers from the grave
Spells of old their will to save
Tombs of kings with curses bound
Echoes rise where none are found
Talismans in starlight gleam
Binding life to death's old dream
Through the matrix voices call
Sorcery that never falls

Singing of light
Threads of time and power tied
Digital ghosts their spells endure
Matrix weaves both dark and pure
Hallelujah
Haunts the night

Potions deep where souls abide Ancient whispers none can hide
Verse turned stone it dwells
Modern minds their die to spells
Blocks of dust on server still
Words of dead still lead astray
Through the web their will takes light
Sorcerers of endless night

0 spirits
Singing of light
Threads of time and power tied
Digital ghosts their spells endure
Matrix weaves both dark and pure
