Jesus Breaks the Chains

In the shadows of the tales we weave, SCPs from one to eight-nine-nine,
Haunted tapes and serpents deep, they deceive, with echoes of the Sanatan divine.
Anantashesha's coil (SCP-3000), in oceans dark, it steals the mind's own light,
Dharma's call (SCP-2781), a pure land's lure, yet hides the truth from sight.

(Inspire: Biblical Truth)

But Your name, oh Jesus, breaks the chains,
Your truth shines bright, it will remain!
In Colossians' word, You hold all things,
Greater is Your love, our hearts will sing!

(Inform: Media, Violence, Aliens, Conspiracies)

Media twists with lies that bind (SCP-1981), fake news clouds the heart's clear way,
Living guns (SCP-127) and creatures wild (SCP-096), bring fear to the light of day.
Alien whispers (SCP-1171), UFOs that soar (SCP-2399), conspiracies unfold,
Secret plans (SCP-2000), they grip the soul, but Your truth makes us bold.

(Inspire: Biblical Truth)

Your name, oh Jesus, breaks the chains,
Your truth shines bright, it will remain!
In Colossians' word, You hold all things,
Greater is Your love, our hearts will sing!

In Jesus' name, we cast them down, to the abyss, no return!
Sanatan shadows (SCP-3000), lies that burn (SCP-1981), by Your Word, they turn!
John eight-thirty-two, the truth sets free, Romans sixteen crushes the foe,
Revelation seals the dark away, Your Spirit makes us whole!

(Inspire & Invoke)

Your name, oh Jesus, breaks the chains,
Your truth shines bright, it will remain!
In Colossians' word, You hold all things,
Greater is Your love, our hearts will sing!

(Inspire)

Unveiled shadows fade in Your light, SCPs bow to Your holy might.
Sanatan tales, we see with care, in Jesus' love, we rise and share.
