Album 54 Song 1

Mend the Shattered Veil

From Himalayan rifts, the Nexus takes hold,
A shattered veil o'er the world's fold.
(Fractures spread! Mending's led!)
Dimensional chains bind the soul's fight,
Truth mends with a holy light.

Warden's hum ignites the fear,
Order's echo draws us near.
(Raise the mend, oh Lord!)

Mend the Shattered Veil, break the dimensional strain,
Heal the fractured realms, restore the reign.
(Seal the dark with light!)
Mend the Shattered Veil, end the Warden's reign,
By Christ's weave, we rise again.

From Delhi's cry to Taipei's call,
Forces rise to heal for all.
(Rifts close! Hope arose!)
MOSSAD, IDF, and health stand free,
A mended pulse for liberty.

Light mends the Nexus's cruel design,

Harmony heals where shadows pine.
(Shine and mend, hallelujah!)

Mend the Shattered Veil, break the dimensional strain,
Heal the fractured realms, restore the reign.

(Seal the dark with light!)

Mend the Shattered Veil, end the Warden's reign,
By Christ's weave, we rise again.

In grace, the veil glows with peace,
Eternal harmony, the soul's release.

Album 54 Song 2

Silence the Crimson Litany

From Syria's vortex, the Litany sings,
EU, UN, WHO fall to false strings.

(Verses fade! Truth's remade!)

"666" chants chain the soul's core,
God's light silences lies forevermore.

Keeper's hum sparks the fear,
Order's echo draws near.

(Raise the truth, oh Lord!)

Silence the Crimson Litany, burn the false domain,
Seal the fractured realms, restore the reign.

(Break the dark with truth!)

Silence the Crimson Litany, end the Keeper's chain,
By Christ's light, we rise again.

From Brussels' cry to Zurich's stand,
Truth silences lies across the land.

(Chants dissolve! Souls evolve!)

MOSSAD, IDF, NGOs set free,
A sealed pulse for destiny.

Light silences the Litany's cruel design,
Harmony binds where shadows decline.

(Shine and silence, hallelujah!)

Silence the Crimson Litany, burn the false domain,

Seal the fractured realms, restore the reign.

(Break the dark with truth!)

Silence the Crimson Litany, end the Keeper's chain,

By Christ's light, we rise again.

In grace, the truth glows with peace,

Eternal light, the soul's release.

Quell the Void Psalm

Where shadows sing the void's cruel hymn,
Obsidian flames burn worlds within.
Null zones rise, with "666" they call,
The psalm's dark tide consumes us all.

Quell the Void Psalm, chant the Aegis high,
Bind the null, let reality defy.
By the word unbroken, we stand as one,
Psalmic Aegis, till the void's undone.

From Jordan's sands to Syria's cry,
The monolith's shadow scars the sky.
Talmud's blood, the Order's cruel design,
Aegis holds the spark of the divine.

Quell the Void Psalm, chant the Aegis high,
Bind the null, let reality defy.
By the word unbroken, we stand as one,
Psalmic Aegis, till the void's undone.

SFX: Subsonic pulse, Aegis chant.
No rift shall tear, no choir shall reign,
The Aegis binds, we break the chain.
Echo: "Reality endures, unyielding..."

Quell the void... chant on...

Album 54 Song 4

Break the Chains of Falsehood

O Heavenly Father, Your truth is our light,
In Jesus' name, we rise to fight.

In shadows deep, where falsehoods creep,
Deceptions rise, Your truth they seek to hide.
SCP's tales, like chains that bind,
Mock Your creation, confuse the mind.
Yet Your Word stands, a lamp so bright,
Guiding us through the darkest night (Psalm 119:105).

By the blood of the Lamb, we stand and decree,
Every lie must fall, Your truth sets us free (John 8:32).

Break the chains of falsehood, Jesus, King of light!
Cast the darkness to the abyss, by Your holy might (Revelation 20:3).
Holy Spirit, fill the void with truth and grace divine,
In Your name, we claim the victory, forever You will shine!

Scarlet King's seals, with rituals vain,
Blood that deceives, brings only pain (Hebrews 10:4).
But Christ's atonement, once for all,
Breaks every curse, hears every call (Hebrews 10:10).
From SCP's doom, Your hope arises,
SCP-999's joy, Your love surprises (John 3:16).

By the blood of the Lamb, we stand and decree,
Every lie must fall, Your truth sets us free (John 8:32).

Break the chains of falsehood, Jesus, King of light!
Cast the darkness to the abyss, by Your holy might (Revelation 20:3).
Holy Spirit, fill the void with truth and grace divine,
In Your name, we claim the victory, forever You will shine!

Xenophobia falls, corruption's throne is broken (Galatians 3:28),
Despair's defeated, Your hope is spoken (Romans 15:13).
False gods crumble, Your glory reigns (Deuteronomy 4:35),
Every SCP lie, bound in Jesus' chains (Colossians 2:15)!
We cast out evil, principalities flee (Ephesians 6:12),
Holy Spirit fire, set Your people free (Acts 2:4)!

Break the chains of falsehood, Jesus, King of light!
Cast the darkness to the abyss, by Your holy might (Revelation 20:3).
Holy Spirit, fill the void with truth and grace divine,
In Your name, we claim the victory, forever You will shine!
Break the chains of falsehood, Jesus, King of light!
Cast the darkness to the abyss, by Your holy might (Revelation 20:3).
Holy Spirit, fill the void with truth and grace divine,
In Your name, we claim the victory, forever You will shine!

O Heavenly Father, Your truth is our stay,
In Jesus' name, we pray, we pray (1 Thessalonians 5:17).
Holy Spirit, guide us, till we see Your face,
Forever we'll sing of Your amazing grace (John 1:5).

Album 54 Song 5

Shatter the Canticle

Where shadows hum the hollow's cry,
Time's frail threads dissolve and die.
Fracture zones with "666" unfold,
The canticle's curse, so dark, so cold.

Shatter the Canticle, chant the Seal's might,
In Christ's holy name, we banish the night.
Aegis, Litany, Chant, and Seal as one,
To the Void it falls, the battle won.

From Palmyra's ruins to Kashmir's pain,
The monolith's pulse drives time insane.
Talmud's shadow, the Order's cruel lore,
The Seal's sacred light will reign evermore.

Shatter the Canticle, chant the Seal's might,
In Christ's holy name, we banish the night.
Aegis, Litany, Chant, and Seal as one,
To the Void it falls, the battle won.

SFX: Temporal pulse, quad-prayer chants.
No fracture holds, no choir prevails,
The Sovereign Seal the darkness assails.
Echo: "By the Spirit's power, we stand steadfast..."

Shatter the hollow... to the Void...

Album 54 Song 6

Seal the Celestial Abyss

From Syria's rift, the Abyss unfolds,
EU, UN, IRGC's soul it holds.
(Sigils break! Truth awakes!)
"666" lies bind the heart's core,
God's light seals all forevermore.

Keeper's darkness blinds the way,
Golden Dawn's echo leads astray.
(Raise the truth, oh Lord!)

Seal the Celestial Abyss, burn the false domain,
Seal the fractured realms, restore the reign.
(Break the dark with truth!)
Seal the Celestial Abyss, end the Keeper's chain,
By Christ's light, we rise again.

From Brussels' cry to Davos' stand,
Truth seals the abyss across the land.
(Shadows fall! Souls recall!)
MOSSAD, IDF, MUFON, IRGC, Diddy set free,
A sealed light for destiny.

Light seals the Abyss's cruel design,
Harmony binds where shadows decline.
(Shine and seal, hallelujah!)

Seal the Celestial Abyss, burn the false domain,
Seal the fractured realms, restore the reign.

(Break the dark with truth!)

Seal the Celestial Abyss, end the Keeper's chain,
By Christ's light, we rise again.

In grace, the truth shines with peace,
Eternal light, the soul's release.

Album 54 Song 7

Pierce the Draconian Veil

From Jordan's rift, the Veil descends,
EU, UN, IRGC's soul it bends.

(Call: Sigils break! Truth awakes!)

"666" lies bind the heart's core,
God's light pierces all forevermore.

Keeper's scales blind the way,
Golden Dawn's hiss leads astray.
(Raise the truth, oh Lord!)

Pierce the Draconian Veil, burn the false domain,
Seal the fractured realms, restore the reign.

(Break the dark with truth!)

Pierce the Draconian Veil, end the Keeper's chain,
By Christ's light, we rise again.

From Brussels' cry to Davos' stand,
Truth pierces the veil across the land.
(Shadows fall! Souls recall!)

MOSSAD, IDF, MUFON, IRGC, Diddy set free,
A sealed light for destiny.

Light pierces the Veil's cruel design,
Harmony binds where serpents decline.
(Shine and pierce, hallelujah!)

Pierce the Draconian Veil

The background of the entire image is a dark, atmospheric illustration. It features a central figure, possibly a woman, wearing a long, flowing red veil that obscures her face. She appears to be bound or restrained by thick, dark metal chains that crisscross the frame. Several five-pointed stars, some with intricate patterns, are scattered across the top and sides of the image. The overall color palette is dominated by dark greys, blacks, and the deep red of the veil.
